Top Story - The Robert Morris University men's basketball team takes to the road for its second game of the 2006-07 season when it travels to Huntington, W.Va., Friday for a 7:00 p.m. contest against Marshall. The Colonials are coming off a 96-72 victory over Florida International (11/13/06) at home in their season opener and will look to improve to 2-0 for the first time since the 1995-96 campaign. In all, RMU has started 2-0 a total of seven times in the program's first 30 years. Leading the way for the Colonials in their win against the Panthers in the season opener was senior forward A.J. Jackson, who finished with 25 points and eight rebounds. Robert Morris returns home to the Charles L. Sewall Center after its game with the Thundering Herd Tuesday, Nov. 21, by hosting New Hampshire for a 7:00 p.m. contest.

Quick Stat of the Night - Robert Morris got its 2006-07 campaign off on the right foot in shooting from beyond the arc in the club's 96-72 win over Florida International (11/13/06) in the season opener. The Colonials finished 12-for-20 in three-point shooting against the Panthers, a success rate of 60 percent that marks the second highest three-point field goal shooting percentage under sixth-year head coach Mark Schmidt. The only better shooting percentage for RMU came in a 97-85 win over Charleston Southern (12/17/05) when the Colonials converted 13-of-21 opportunities from beyond the arc, a success rate of 61.9 percent. Robert Morris also improved to 25-18 all-time under Schmidt when hitting at least 10 three-pointers in a game.

Friday's Opponent and the All-Time Series - Marshall and Robert Morris will meet for the fifth time Friday night, with the Thundering Herd holding a 3-1 lead in the all-time series. Marshall has won each of the three times the two teams have met in Huntington, W.Va., including a 91-65 win Dec. 30, 1992, in the last matchup between the two clubs. The only win for Robert Morris against Marshall was an 85-61 victory (12/2/91) in RMU's 1991-92 season opener at the Charles L. Sewall Center.

Head Coach Mark Schmidt Sixth Season - Boston College '85

The 2006-07 campaign marks Mark Schmidt's sixth year as head coach of the men's basketball program at Robert Morris University. He owns an overall record of 66-79 (.455), including a 49-43 (.533) mark in the Northeast Conference, and was named to his current post May 7, 2001. Schmidt guided the Colonials to their first winning season in six years in 2005-06 with an overall record of 15-14, including 10-8 in conference action. He also led RMU to the NEC Tournament semifinals for the second time in the last three years in 2006. In 2003-04 and 2004-05, he led RMU to identical overall records of 14-15. In 2001-02, Schmidt led Robert Morris to a 12-18 overall record, the most victories for a first-year head coach in the 30-year history of the Colonial men's basketball program.

Prior to RMU, Schmidt spent seven seasons as one of the nation's top assistants at Xavier University under current Wake Forest head coach Skip Prosser from 1994-2001. While with the Musketeers, Schmidt played a dual role, serving as both a coach and the program's top recruiter. His coaching responsibilities centered mostly around the post players, and he helped develop and recruit players at Xavier that have moved on to the professional ranks, including James Posey (Miami Heat), David West (New Orleans Hornets), Romain Sato (San Antonio Spurs), Lionel Chalmers (Minnesota Timberwolves) and David Young (Seattle Supersonics). Prior to his stint with Xavier, Schmidt served one year as an assistant at Loyola College in Baltimore, Md., also under Prosser. He also spent two seasons at Penn State University under Bruce Parkhill from 1991-93, and started his coaching career as an assistant at St. Michael's College in Vermont from 1989-91.

Schmidt's playing career was highlighted by four years as a guard/forward at Boston College, where he received his bachelor's degree in business administration and management with a concentration in marketing in 1985. The Eagles went 22-10 and made the NCAA Elite Eight during his freshman season in 1981-82 under head coach Tom Davis and 25-7 the next year in making the NCAA Tournament Sweet Sixteen in his first of three years playing for current Maryland coach Gary Williams. Boston College reached the NIT second round in 1984 and the NCAA Sweet Sixteen again in 1985.

Scouting the Thundering Herd - Marshall enters Friday night's game with Robert Morris coming off a thrilling 82-80 overtime victory over UNC-Greensboro (11/11/06) in its 2006-07 season opener. Down nine with just over a minute to go, the Thundering Herd climbed back to send the game to the extra frame and won in overtime as Travis Aikens and Markel Humphrey combined to go 8-for-10 from the free-throw line. Humphrey finished with 22 points and eight rebounds in the win, while Aikens notched his second career double-double with 21 points and 10 boards.

Marshall Head Coach - The 2006-07 campaign marks the fourth season for head coach Ron Jirsa (Gettysburg '81) at Marshall and his sixth season overall. He owns an overall record of 66-85 (.437), including a mark of 31-55 (.360) with the Thundering Herd. Prior to Marshall, Jirsa served as a senior assistant coach with Dayton from 1999-2003 and was the head coach at Georgia from 1997-99.

RMU's Last Game - Robert Morris opened its 31st season of Division I basketball with a 96-72 victory over Florida International Nov. 13. In a game of runs, Florida International reeled off 11 unanswered points to take an 11-2 advantage after senior forward A.J. Jackson scored the game's opening points. The Panthers scored courtesy of the long ball, as Elvis Lora, Johwen Villegas and Facundo Giorgi each hit three-pointers. Robert Morris closed its deficit to one, 13-12, on the strength of an 11-2 run of its own, which was bolstered by five points from junior guard Tony Lee. With the score tied at 19 with 11:35 left before halftime, FIU surged out to a 29-21 advantage thanks to a pair of trifectas from Lora. The Panthers held tied their largest lead of the game by taking a 32-23 advantage after a free throw from Chris Fuller, but the Colonials used a 21-5 run over the last 6:33 of the first half to take a 44-37 edge into halftime. The main offensive threat during RMU's run was sophomore guard Jeremy Chappell, who scored seven points. Robert Morris seemed to break open the game at the start of the second half, stretching its lead to 14, 57-43, after a three-pointer from junior forward Colson Sénat, but Florida International climbed back into the contest with a 10-0 spurt to close its deficit to four, 57-53. The Panthers again used the three-pointer, as Johwen Villegas and Dejon Prejean each hit treys to bolster FIU. Chappell answered Prejean's three-pointer to push the Robert Morris lead to 60-53 with 12:17 to play, but a fastbreak layup by Prejean on the next possession kept Florida International close, 60-55. However, the Panthers would score just five points over a five-minute stretch, and the Colonials upped their lead to double digits in the process, 72-60, with 7:15 to play. Chappell and senior guard Derek Coleman each scored five points during the 12-5 spurt. Robert Morris eventually pushed its lead to 20 and finished the game 6-for-6 from the free-throw line in the last five minutes of action to help seal the win. Jackson led five Colonials in double figures scoring with 25 points on 10-of-18 shooting from the floor, including 2-for-4 from beyond the arc.

Florida International Game Notes - After a total of 13 Colonials received playing time against Glenville State in RMU's lone exhibition game Nov. 3, head coach Mark Schmidt shortended his bench against the Panthers and used just eight players ... The 24-point victory over FIU is the largest in a season-opening victory against a Division I opponent, tying the mark originally set in an 85-61 win over Marshall (12/2/91) ... The win improved the Colonials to 16-15 all-time in season openers, including 12-2 at home ... Robert Morris shot 60 percent (12-for-20) from beyond the arc and 59.7 percent (37-for-62) on the game ... The Colonials finished 10-for-12 from the free-throw line, a success rate of 83.3 percent, and were led by senior guard Derek Coleman, who finished 5-for-5 ... RMU registered 27 assists on its 37 field goals and won the battle of the boards, 29-23 ... In his first game regular season action since playing only five games due to a broken foot last season, senior center Freddie Harris contributed four points and three rebounds in 26 minutes of action, converting two of his four shots from the field.

Double Vision - Junior guard Tony Lee, possibly the most intense player on the Colonial roster, recorded his 10th career double-double in RMU's 96-72 victory over Florida International (11/13/06) by scoring 13 points and establishing a career high with 10 assists. It marks Lee's first double-double of the point-assist variety, and it comes on the heels of a 2005-06 campaign in which he ranked eighth in the Northeast Conference in assists with an average of 3.4 per game.

Road Warrior - Speaking of junior guard Tony Lee, he was one Colonial who was not disappointed in playing away from the friendly confines of the Charles L. Sewall Center in 2005-06. Lee consistently brought his best game to the table for Robert Morris away from home, averaging 13.8 points and 7.5 rebounds per game in 15 road tilts. He was even better on the road against Northeast Conference opponents, averaging 15.9 points and 8.9 caroms in nine league contests while shooting 50.5 percent (51-for-101) from the field.

Freedom - An area of strength for RMU under the direction of head coach Mark Schmidt has been the ability of the team to convert at the free-throw line. Robert Morris has finished in the top five in the Northeast Conference in free-throw percentage each of the previous five years, including a league-best 75.4 percent (384-for-576) in 2003-04. The Colonials opened their 2006-07 season in style from the charity stripe, hitting 10 of 12 shots in a 96-72 win over Florida International (11/13/06), a shooting percentage of 83.3 percent. Overall under Schmidt Robert Morris has converted 71.9 percent of its shots from the charity stripe (1,943-for-2,703).

Sparkling - Junior forward Colson Sénat, who started the last six games of the 2005-06 campaign and averaged 6.3 points and 4.2 rebounds over that span, picked up right where he left off in RMU's season opener against Florida International (11/13/06). Despite coming off the bench Sénat provided the Colonials with 12 points on 4-of-9 shooting and also added three rebounds. Sénat finished 2-for-5 from beyond the arc against the Panthers and dating back to the 2005-06 campaign he has converted 46.2 percent (18-for-39) of his three-point field goal attempts in his last 13 games.

Many Happy Returns - A key reason that Robert Morris received its highest preseason ranking in the annual NEC coaches poll (second) is due to the fact that the Colonials return four starters and five letterwinners from a 2005-06 team that posted a scoring average of 73.7 points per game, the highest points per game average offensively by a Mark Schmidt-led club. That total also ranks as the sixth highest scoring average in school history. A year after entering the 2005-06 season having lost 58.9 percent of its scoring from 2004-05, the Colonials have done an about face entering 2006-07. With the return of seniors Derek Coleman, Freddie Harris and A.J. Jackson, juniors Tony Lee and Colson Sénat and sophomore Jeremy Chappell, RMU returns a remarkable 81.6 percent of its scoring and 75.9 percent of its rebounding.

The Chase Is On - For the second time in three seasons, the Robert Morris career record for three-point field goals could be challenged in 2006-07. Former Colonial Aaron Thomas (2000-04) established a new career record for three-pointers in 2003-04 by finishing his career with 218. That record was only 48 treys ahead of former Colonial Maurice Carter (2001-05) entering the 2004-05 campaign, but Carter hit just 47 in his senior season to finish second in the record books with 217 career three-pointers. Now, thanks to a career-high 74 three-pointers in 2005-06, senior Derek Coleman entered his final season in 2006-07 a total of 78 three-pointers shy of breaking the record held by Thomas. Coleman, who ranked 19th in Division I last season in three-point field goal percentage (42.3 percent), hit four of his five attempts from beyond the arc in the club's season opener against Florida International, pushing his career total for three-pointers to 145.

Streaking - Thanks to a game-high 25 points in a 96-72 win over Florida International (11/13/06) in RMU's 2006-07 season opener, senior forward A.J. Jackson extended his double-figure scoring streak to 10 games dating back to last season. Over that span Jackson is averaging 18.9 points per game and it marks his second streak of at least 10 games scoring in double figures in a Colonial uniform. A look at the top double-figure scoring streaks by active Colonials:

Name	Games	PPG	FG%	3-PT FG%
1. Jeremy Chappell	14	15.6	46.3 (82-for-177)	40.0 (28-for-70)
2. Tony Lee	11	12.5	50.0 (48-for-96)	38.1 (8-for-21)
3. A.J. Jackson	10	18.9	48.2 (67-for-139)	38.5 (10-for-26)
A.J. Jackson (active)	10	18.9	48.6 (71-for-146)	43.2 (19-for-44)
5. Derek Coleman	8	14.0	44.0 (37-for-84)	50.0 (26-for-52)

Creating & Creating - Senior guard Derek Coleman, who proved himself an accurate three-point shooter in 2005-06, good off to a good start this year doing what he does best: creating opportunities for his teammates. Coleman dished out seven assists in the season opener against Florida International (11/13/06), pushing his career total for dimes to 295. After entering the 2006-07 campaign ranked 11th all-time at Robert Morris for assists with 288, Coleman jumped into the top 10 and now ranks ninth all-time after his seven-assist performance against the Panthers. Barring injury, Coleman has a chance of becoming just the sixth Colonial in school history to eclipse 400 career assists, as the last player in school history to turn the trick was former Colonial Javier Smith (1994-98). Smith accumulated 459 assists from 1994-98. A look at where Coleman ranks in career assists at Robert Morris:

Name	Years	Assists
6. Gene Nabors	1995-2000	385
7. Brandon Jackson	1977-81	322
8. Maurice Carter	2001-05	301
9. Derek Coleman	2003-	295
10. Mark McCloud	1983-87	292

Creating & Creating II - Senior guard Derek Coleman's career-high 137 assists in 2005-06 helped him place his name in the top 10 in the Robert Morris single-season records. Coleman's total ranks tied for the eighth highest single-season total in school history with Andre Boyd (1987-1991), who dished out 137 assists in 1990-91. Coleman also became just the program's third player to lead the Northeast Conference in assists per game. He posted a league-best 4.72 assists per game average in 2005-06 and joined former Colonials Javier Smith (5.4 apg in 1996-97) and Wade Timmerman (6.5 apg in 1991-92) to pace the circuit in assists.

The Lights Get Brighter - Senior forward A.J. Jackson, a virtual unknown entering the 2005-06 season, has been showered with preseason accolades entering the 2006-07 campaign. As well as earning a spot on the 2006-07 preseason All-NEC team after averaging 17.0 points and 9.3 rebounds per game a year ago, Jackson has been named the NEC Preseason Player of the Year by five annual college basketball publications: Athlon Sports, Lindy's College Basketball, Street & Smith's, USAToday Sports Weekly and The Sporting News. The latest preseason honor came from Kyle Whelliston of the website midmajority.com, who picked Jackson as one of his nine Mid-Major Stars to Watch for the 2006-07 campaign.

39 On a Dime - One can point to senior forward A.J. Jackson as a key reason Robert Morris was able to hang around the upper half of the Northeast Conference standings in 2005-06. Jackson played an integral role for Robert Morris, and one only needs to look at his performance in an 89-77 victory over Quinnipiac (2/12/06) to understand why. Jackson established a career-high with 39 points in the win and also added 11 rebounds for his 13th double-double of the season while registering four blocks on the afternoon. To delve deeper into Jackson's impact, consider:

- His 39 points against Quinnipiac established a new Charles L. Sewall Center record for points by an RMU player, eclipsing the 35 former Colonial Maurice Carter (2001-05) scored in a 71-62 win over Sacred Heart (2/5/04)
- The 39 points is also ties the second highest single-game scoring total in school history. Former Colonial Aaron Thomas (2000-04) scored 39 in RMU's season-opening victory @ Missouri-Kansas City (11/22/02)
- His 14 double-doubles on the 2005-06 season is a new single-season school record, breaking the former mark of 10 that was held by Anthony Dickens (1985-90), who accomplished the feat during the 1989-90 campaign
- With 259 rebounds in 2005-06, Jackson posted the most rebounds in a season since Dickens grabbed 271 in 1989-90. Jackson's total ranks third all-time in the single-season annals.

Round Mound of Rebound - Senior forward A.J. Jackson was as consistent a contributor for Robert Morris in his first season in a Colonial uniform in 2005-06, as he finished the season tied for second in the Northeast Conference in rebounding (9.3 per game). Jackson trailed only Central Connecticut State's Obie Nwadike, who won the rebounding crown with an average of 10.3 caroms per contest, and tied with Wagner's Durrell Vinson (9.3 rpg). Only one Colonial in school history prior to Jackson's campaign in 2005-06 averaged better than 9.0 rebounds per game, when former Colonial Earl Cureton (1976-77) averaged 10.5 caroms a contest in RMU's inaugural Division I campaign in 1976-77. Jackson finishing third in the NEC in rebounding marks the highest showing by a Colonial since 1999-2000, when Steve Pettyjohn (1998-2000) finished second in the circuit (8.4 rpg).

Five Against One - With the addition of seven new players in 2006-07, including four that stand 6'7" or taller, head coach Mark Schmidt will look to build depth on his bench and give his regular starters a breather. In 2005-06, forward's A.J. Jackson and Cori Boston and guards Derek Coleman, Tony Lee and Jeremy Chappell, all regular starters until Boston fell to an injury bug late in the season, combined for an amazing 84.7 percent (1,810-of-2,136) of RMU's offense and 74.5 percent (780-of-1,047) of the club's rebounds.

2005-06 Starting Lineups (F, F, G, G, G) and RMU's Record:

- Boston, Harris (C), Clark, Coleman, Chappell (0-1)
- Jackson, Harris (C), Coleman, Chappell, Lee (2-1)
- Jackson, Harris (C), Coleman, Boston, Lee (0-1)
- Jackson, Boston, Coleman, Chappell, Lee (11-7)
- Jackson, Sénat, Coleman, Chappell, Lee (2-4)

2006-07 Starting Lineups (F, C, G, G, G) and RMU's Record:

- Jackson, Harris, Coleman, Lee, Chappell (1-0)

Settling In - With the return of senior center Freddie Harris in 2006-07, Robert Morris has the regular starting lineup that head coach Mark Schmidt envisioned before Harris went down with a foot injury five games into the 2005-06 campaign. Harris has started with fellow Colonials A.J. Jackson, Derek Coleman, Tony Lee and Jeremy Chappell just four times so far in the last two seasons, with RMU owning a record of 3-1 in those games.

Three For Me, Three for You - One could say that Robert Morris had its most prolific season in school history in regard to three-point shooting in 2005-06, establishing a new school record for team three-point field goals with 260. That total shattered the former school mark of 213, set in 2003-04. In 2005-06, the Colonials broke the single-season school record for three-pointers for the third time in five seasons under head coach Mark Schmidt. Over the course of the club's last 12 games of the 2005-06 campaign and a 92-76 win over FIU in the club's 2006-07 season opener, the Colonials are averaging an even 10.0 three-pointers per game while shooting 41.8 percent (130-for-311) from beyond the arc.

Leaders of the Pack

The Northeast Conference features four schools with duos that combined to score at least 25.0 points per game in 2005-06. Topping the list for the third time in the last four years is Robert Morris, which features senior forward A.J. Jackson and sophomore guard Jeremy Chappell. The duo, led by Jackson's 17.0 ppg average in 2005-06, combined to average 31.1 ppg last season. Chappell averaged 14.1 points per game as a freshman in 2005-06. Entering the 2003-04 and 2004-05 campaigns, Robert Morris had the top returning scoring duo thanks to former forward Chaz McCrommon and former guard Maurice Carter. The top mark by an NEC returning scoring duo was McCrommon and Carter, who averaged 35.5 points game entering 2003-04.

Marshall Memorial Classic

Home Sweet Home - Robert Morris has learned to protect its home court at the Charles L. Sewall Center, as the Colonials notched a 96-72 win in its 2006-07 season opener over Florida International at home, a year after posting an 11-2 record at home. Under head coach Mark Schmidt, RMU has posted a record of 42-23 (.646) at the Sewall Center in six seasons and overall in the 22-year history of the facility the Colonials have posted a record of 165-104 (.613).

Washington "D.C." - While doing what he does best, senior guard Derek Coleman also became a more accomplished shooter in 2005-06. He finished third in the Northeast Conference in 2005-06 in three-point field goal shooting percentage (42.3 percent) and 19th in the country after entering the year a career 36 percent shooter from beyond the arc. Coleman also finished fourth in the league in free-throw shooting (83.1 percent).

Martial Arts - To illustrate the importance of junior guard Tony Lee's presence on defense, one can point to the club's single-game steal totals. Since the start of the 2004-05 campaign, RMU has finished with at least 10 steals in a game 13 times. Over the course of Mark Schmidt's first three seasons as head coach, the Colonials finished with at least 10 steals in a game a total of six times. Lee enters the 2006-07 with 103 career steals, just outside the top 10 all-time. With another solid season this year, Lee could climb into the top 5 all-time at Robert Morris for career steals. Currently ranked fifth is former Colonial Andre Boyd (1987-91), who posted 162 steals over his four-year career.

Double Your Pleasure - Thanks to 15 points and 10 rebounds in a 74-69 setback @ Long Island (2/16/06) last season, senior forward A.J. Jackson notched his Northeast Conference-best 14th double-double of the 2005-06 season. His 14 double-doubles established a new single-season school record, eclipsing the 10 former Colonial Anthony Dickens (1985-90) posted during the 1989-90 campaign. Jackson's 14 double-doubles was also the most by an NEC player since Central Connecticut State's Ron Robinson posted 14 in 2003-04.

Fantastic Four - A key reason Robert Morris was able to establish a new school record for three-pointers in 2005-06 was due to the club stepping up in Northeast Conference play. The Colonials averaged 9.33 three-pointers per game in league play to lead the circuit, and a number of players came through to help the team lead the league. Junior guard Derek Coleman finished the 2005-06 season as the league's leading three-point shooter against conference foes, converting 45.5 percent (51-for-112) of his shots from long range. Coleman was one of four Colonials in the top 12 individually in three-point field goal shooting against NEC competition. He was joined by senior forward A.J. Jackson (43.9 percent), who tied for third, junior forward Colson Sénat (41.3 percent), who finished eighth, and sophomore guard Jeremy Chappell, who shot 38.8 percent from long range against conference foes to rank 12th.

Your History Lesson - RMU is the only school ever to jump from junior college to NCAA Division I in the same year (1976), and the Colonials are the NEC record holder for league titles and subsequent NCAA Tournament appearances with five. Robert Morris also is one of two NEC teams to own a victory in the NCAA Tournament, garnering a 64-54 win over Georgia Southern in the 1983 opening round game. RMU has never played in the NIT. The NCAA games are ...

1982 NCAA Midwest Regional

Multimedia - Listen to all of RMU's 2005-06 men's basketball games on WPIT-AM 73 (Pittsburgh), the flagship radio station of Robert Morris University athletics since 1996. In his 20th season as the Voice of the Colonials, Chris Shovlin calls the play-by-play action, while Jim Elias handles color duties for the fourth straight year. In 2004-05, Shovlin called his 500th Robert Morris men's basketball broadcast. Each of RMU's games are also heard live and archived on the internet at www.sports.yahoo.com. "The Mark Schmidt Show" is heard on WPIT 15 minutes before and again after the game.

2006 Northeast Conference Preseason Coaches Poll

According to a poll of league head coaches, Robert Morris was been picked to finish second in the Northeast Conference in 2006-07. It marks the highest preseason ranking for the Colonials ever, matching their second-place preseason prediction prior to the 1991-92 campaign. RMU received five first-place votes, with the other six going to Monmouth, which was tabbed as the preseason favorite.

Following Monmouth and Robert Morris in the top five in the poll are Long Island, Central Connecticut State and Quinnipiac. The Blue Devils and Bobcats were picked to tie for fourth in the poll. Rounding out the annual poll is Wagner, Fairleigh Dickinson, St. Francis (N.Y.), Sacred Heart, Mount St. Mary's and Saint Francis (Pa.).

As well as being picked second in the preseason poll, Robert Morris placed senior forward A.J. Jackson on the 2006-07 NEC preseason all-conference team. Joining Jackson are forwards Marques Alston of Monmouth and Obie Nwadike of Central Connecticut State and guards Jarrid Frye of Sacred Heart and James Williams of Long Island.

Conducted annually, NEC coaches have failed to correctly forecast the eventual league champion since selecting Mount St. Mary's to win it all in 1998-99, and have proven inaccurate in 17 of the last 19 years.

This year marks the eighth time that Monmouth has been selected the Northeast Conference's preseason favorite by league head coaches, the most in conference history by a wide margin.

The Need for Three

The Colonials have relied heavily on the three-point shot under the direction of Mark Schmidt during his six years as head coach, with evidence the club's three-point field goal totals. In 2005-06 RMU shattered the team record for three-pointers with 260, eclipsing the club's old mark of 213, which was set in 2003-04. On the 2005-06 campaign, RMU averaged 8.97 three-pointers a game to lead the Northeast Conference. Since the start of the 2001-02 season, the Colonials lead the NEC in three-pointers made per game (7.53), ahead of St. Francis (N.Y.), which has averaged 7.43 three-pointers a game. A breakdown of the NEC's top five teams in three-pointers made since the beginning of the 2001-02 campaign ...
