Top Story - The Robert Morris University men's basketball team returns home to the Charles L. Sewall Center Tuesday night looking to match its best start in school history when it hosts New Hampshire for a 7:00 p.m. non-conference tilt. The Colonials are coming off a 73-69 victory @ Marshall (11/17/06) and a victory over the Wildcats would give the club just its second 3-0 start in RMU's 31-year history. The 1989-90 Colonials started the season 3-0 en route to a 22-8 overall record, a Northeast Conference championship and a spot in the 1990 NCAA Tournament. Robert Morris owns a 12-2 record at home since the start of the 2005-06 campaign and after its contest with New Hampshire will travel to Orono, Maine, for a 1:00 p.m. game against Maine Sunday, Nov. 26.

Quick Stat of the Night - Senior forward A.J. Jackson was named the Choice Hotels Northeast Conference Player of the Week (11/20/06) after averaging 27.5 points, 11.5 rebounds and 2.5 assists in the club's 2-0 start to the season. Jackson put together possibly his signature game in a Colonial uniform in RMU's 73-69 win @ Marshall (11/17/06), posting his 15th career double-double with 30 points and 15 rebounds while adding three assists. The 30-point outburst for Jackson marked the second time he has eclipsed the 30-point plateau in his career. RMU all-time leading scorer Myron Walker (1991-94) owns the most 30-point scoring games in school history with six to his credit.

Tuesday's Opponent and the All-Time Series - RMU will square off with New Hampshire for just the third time in school history but for the second time in as many years Tuesday night. The Wildcats have claimed victory in both of the previous meetings, the first of which came when New Hampshire downed RMU, 58-55, in the Brown Tipoff Tournament (12/2/79) in Providence, R.I. The Colonials visited Durham, N.H., last season and dropped a 71-65 decision to the Wildcats at Lundholm Gymnasium (12/6/05).

Head Coach Mark Schmidt Sixth Season - Boston College '85

The 2006-07 campaign marks Mark Schmidt's sixth year as head coach of the men's basketball program at Robert Morris University. He owns an overall record of 67-79 (.459), including a 49-43 (.533) mark in the Northeast Conference, and was named to his current post May 7, 2001. Schmidt guided the Colonials to their first winning season in six years in 2005-06 with an overall record of 15-14, including 10-8 in conference action. He also led RMU to the NEC Tournament semifinals for the second time in the last three years in 2006. In 2003-04 and 2004-05, he led RMU to identical overall records of 14-15. In 2001-02, Schmidt led Robert Morris to a 12-18 overall record, the most victories for a first-year head coach in the 30-year history of the Colonial men's basketball program.

Prior to RMU, Schmidt spent seven seasons as one of the nation's top assistants at Xavier University under current Wake Forest head coach Skip Prosser from 1994-2001. While with the Musketeers, Schmidt played a dual role, serving as both a coach and the program's top recruiter. His coaching responsibilities centered mostly around the post players, and he helped develop and recruit players at Xavier that have moved on to the professional ranks, including James Posey (Miami Heat), David West (New Orleans Hornets), Romain Sato (San Antonio Spurs), Lionel Chalmers (Minnesota Timberwolves) and David Young (Seattle Supersonics). Prior to his stint with Xavier, Schmidt served one year as an assistant at Loyola College in Baltimore, Md., also under Prosser. He also spent two seasons at Penn State University under Bruce Parkhill from 1991-93, and started his coaching career as an assistant at St. Michael's College in Vermont from 1989-91.

Schmidt's playing career was highlighted by four years as a guard/forward at Boston College, where he received his bachelor's degree in business administration and management with a concentration in marketing in 1985. The Eagles went 22-10 and made the NCAA Elite Eight during his freshman season in 1981-82 under head coach Tom Davis and 25-7 the next year in making the NCAA Tournament Sweet Sixteen in his first of three years playing for current Maryland coach Gary Williams. Boston College reached the NIT second round in 1984 and the NCAA Sweet Sixteen again in 1985.

Scouting the Wildcats - New Hampshire enters Tuesday night's game with Robert Morris sporting an overall record of 0-3 and is coming off a 73-66 defeat to Central Connecticut State (11/18/06). In that contest senior point guard Jermaine Anderson saw his first action of the 2006-07 campaign and led the way with 18 points, while Blagoj Janev came off the bench to supply UNH with 13 points and six rebounds. Junior forward Mike Christensen and sophomore guard Tyrece Gibbs have each started the first three games for the Wildcats and are both averaging 11.3 points per game in the early going.

New Hampshire Head Coach - In his second season as head coach of the Wildcats and 16th season overall is Bill Herrion (Merrimack '81), who owns an overall record of 249-189 (.568), including a record of 12-20 (.375) with New Hampshire. Prior to UNH, Herrion was the associate head coach at Arkansas and posted a 167-71 record as head coach at Drexel from 1991-99.

RMU's Last Game - Down 15 with less than 10 minutes to play, Robert Morris roared back and pulled out a 73-69 victory over Conference USA foe Marshall in Huntington, W.Va., Nov. 17. Marshall took its biggest lead of the contest, 59-44, after a layup from Chris Ross, but RMU slowly crept back into the game by playing solid defense while riding the offensive wave of senior forward A.J. Jackson. Jackson scored 16 points during a 23-8 run, including a three-pointer with 1:35 remaining that tied the score at 67. After Mark Dorris pushed Marshall back in front, 68-67, by hitting the back end of a pair of free throws, senior guard Derek Coleman gave Robert Morris the lead for good, 70-68, with a three-pointer with 49 ticks left on the second-half clock. Marshall tried to rally, but a three-pointer from Moss was off the mark, and the Colonials came down with the rebound after it was tipped out of bounds. On RMU's ensuing possession, Jackson missed a shot before senior center Freddie Harris came down with the offensive rebound, but his putback went awry and Jean Francois Bro Grebe grabbed the loose ball for the Thundering Herd. Harris fouled Bro Grebe during the rebound, sending him to the line for a pair of free throws. Bro Grebe hit the second of his two chances at the charity stripe, and on the ensuing inbounds pass sophomore guard Jeremy Chappell was fouled by Travis Aikens. Chappell calmly hit both of his free throws with 24 seconds left to push Robert Morris to a 72-69 advantage, and Dorris missed a three-pointer and a jumper in the lane with less than 20 seconds to play. Harris was then fouled, and he helped seal the victory by hitting the front end of a pair of free throws. In a first half in which the lead changed five times, RMU was able to take a 32-31 advantage into halftime despite committing 17 fouls in the first 20 minutes of play. Marshall used a 13-4 run over the final 4:02 of the first half to close within one at the break and carried that momentum into the second half, hitting eight of their first 11 shots from the field, mostly on easy transition opportunities, to open up a double-digit lead just a little more than five minutes into the half, 48-38.

Marshall Game Notes - The 15-point deficit Robert Morris overcame against the Thundering Herd is the largest comeback for the Colonials under sixth-year head coach Mark Schmidt ... RMU came back from a 14-point first half deficit to down Monmouth, 73-65, Jan. 26, 2006 ... Neither team shot very well, as Robert Morris converted just 36.4 percent (24-for-66) of its shots while Marshall shot 38.7 percent (24-for-62) ... Combined the two clubs shot 17.5 percent (10-for-57) from beyond the arc ... Despite shooting 36.4 percent on the game Robert Morris converted seven of its last 13 field goal attempts (53.8 percent) ... The Colonials committed 28 fouls in the contest as freshman guard Mezie Nwigwe and junior forward Colson Sénat each fouled out ... Nwigwe contributed seven points, three rebounds and a steal in 14 minutes of action off the bench ... RMU turned 22 Thundering Herd turnovers into 16 points ... The win for Robert Morris snapped a 21-game road losing streak in non-conference games dating back to a 93-74 win @ Maryland-Eastern Shore (12/18/02) ... The Colonials were outrebounded in the contest, 52-39, including a 19-13 deficit on the offensive boards.

Freedom - An area of strength for RMU under the direction of head coach Mark Schmidt has been the ability of the team to convert at the free-throw line. Robert Morris has finished in the top five in the Northeast Conference in free-throw percentage each of the previous five years, including a league-best 75.4 percent (384-for-576) in 2003-04. The Colonials opened their 2006-07 season in style from the charity stripe, hitting 10 of 12 shots in a 96-72 win over Florida International (11/13/06), a shooting percentage of 83.3 percent. RMU followed that up by converting just 69.2 percent (18-for-26) @ Marshall (11/17/06), yet overall under Schmidt Robert Morris has converted 71.9 percent of its shots from the charity stripe (1,961-for-2,729).

Clutch Charity - While Robert Morris only shot 69.2 percent (18-for-26) from the free-throw line its 73-69 victory @ Marshall (11/17/06), the Colonials came through when they needed to. In the last 5:41 of the game when RMU turned an 11-point deficit into victory the Colonials were 6-for-7 from the charity stripe, a success rate of 85.7 percent. In contrast, during that same time span Marshall was 4-for-7 from the free-throw line. In the early going of the 2006-07 campaign Robert Morris has converted 10 of its 11 free-throw shots (90.9 percent) in the last five minutes of games.

Clutch Shooting - A number of Colonials have begun to show their penchant for clutch shooting late in ball games as Robert Morris gets its 2006-07 season underway. In a 73-69 victory @ Marshall (11/17/06), senior forward A.J. Jackson and senior guard Derek Coleman each hit three-pointers in the last 1:35 of the contest to help propel RMU to victory. Coleman's three-pointer with 49 seconds to go gave Robert Morris the lead for good, and it marks his second career three-pointer in the last minute of a game that gave the Colonials a lead. Coleman drained a three-pointer with 12 seconds to play to lift RMU to a 69-68 victory @ Central Connecticut State (2/14/04) during his freshman campaign. Sophomore guard Jeremy Chappell, meanwhile, sunk a three-pointer with 12.3 seconds remaining to lift Robert Morris to a 67-66 win @ Mount St. Mary's (3/3/06) in the 2006 NEC Tournament quarter-finals.

Many Happy Returns - A key reason that Robert Morris received its highest preseason ranking in the annual NEC coaches poll (second) is due to the fact that the Colonials return four starters and five letterwinners from a 2005-06 team that posted a scoring average of 73.7 points per game, the highest points per game average offensively by a Mark Schmidt-led club. That total also ranks as the sixth highest scoring average in school history. A year after entering the 2005-06 season having lost 58.9 percent of its scoring from 2004-05, the Colonials have done an about face entering 2006-07. With the return of seniors Derek Coleman, Freddie Harris and A.J. Jackson, juniors Tony Lee and Colson Sénat and sophomore Jeremy Chappell, RMU returns a remarkable 81.6 percent of its scoring and 75.9 percent of its rebounding.

Select Company - Senior forward A.J. Jackson, a 2006-07 preseason All-Northeast Conference Team selection, put together one of his best games in a Colonial uniform in RMU's 73-69 win @ Marshall (11/17/06). Jackson finished with 30 points on 9-of-18 shooting and also compiled 15 rebounds, including six offensive boards, for his 15th career double-double. His 30-point effort marks the second time Jackson has hit the 30-point plateau in a contest, while his 15 rebounds marks the third time he has recorded at least 15 caroms in a game. A quick glance at the Robert Morris single-game records, and Jackson has an opportunity to post the most 30-point scoring games in school history and is already tied for the most games with 15+ rebounds. Former Colonial Myron Walker (1991-94) posted six games in which he scored 30 or more points, while former Colonials Earl Cureton (1976-77) and Anthony Dickens (1985-90) own three games of posting at least 15 rebounds in a game. A look where individuals stand at Robert Morris for career 30+ point, 15+ rebound games ...

Streaking - Thanks to double-figure scoring games in each of RMU's first two games of the 2006-07 season, senior forward A.J. Jackson has extended his double-figure scoring streak to 11 games dating back to last season. Over that span Jackson is averaging 19.9 points per game and it marks his second streak of at least 10 games scoring in double figures in a Colonial uniform. A look at the top double-figure scoring streaks by active Colonials:

Name	Games	PPG	FG%	3-PT FG%
1. Jeremy Chappell	14	15.6	46.3 (82-for-177)	40.0 (28-for-70)

The Chase Is On - For the second time in three seasons, the Robert Morris career record for three-point field goals could be challenged in 2006-07. Former Colonial Aaron Thomas (2000-04) established a new career record for three-pointers in 2003-04 by finishing his career with 218. That record was only 48 treys ahead of former Colonial Maurice Carter (2001-05) entering the 2004-05 campaign, but Carter hit just 47 in his senior season to finish second in the record books with 217 career three-pointers. Now, thanks to a career-high 74 three-pointers in 2005-06, senior Derek Coleman entered his final season in 2006-07 a total of 78 three-pointers shy of breaking the record held by Thomas. Coleman, who ranked 19th in Division I last season in three-point field goal percentage (42.3 percent), owns six three-pointers so far on the 2006-07 season, pushing his career total for three-pointers to 147.

Double Vision - Junior guard Tony Lee, possibly the most intense player on the Colonial roster, recorded his 10th career double-double in RMU's 96-72 victory over Florida International (11/13/06) by scoring 13 points and establishing a career high with 10 assists. It marks Lee's first double-double of the point-assist variety, and it comes on the heels of a 2005-06 campaign in which he ranked eighth in the Northeast Conference in assists with an average of 3.4 per game.

Home Sweet Home - Robert Morris has learned to protect its home court at the Charles L. Sewall Center, as the Colonials notched a 96-72 win in its 2006-07 season opener over Florida International at home, a year after posting an 11-2 record at home. Under head coach Mark Schmidt, RMU has posted a record of 42-23 (.646) at the Sewall Center in six seasons and overall in the 22-year history of the facility the Colonials have posted a record of 165-104 (.613).

Defense Wins Championships - Head coach Mark Schmidt has preached over the course of his six years as head coach that a suffocating defense will lead to victories, and his mantra has been proven correct. Under Schmidt, Robert Morris boasts a record of 50-17 (.746) when holding opponents under 70 points a contest, including 1-0 on the 2006-07 season.

The Lights Get Brighter - Senior forward A.J. Jackson, a virtual unknown entering the 2005-06 season, has been showered with preseason accolades entering the 2006-07 campaign. As well as earning a spot on the 2006-07 preseason All-NEC team after averaging 17.0 points and 9.3 rebounds per game a year ago, Jackson has been named the NEC Preseason Player of the Year by five annual college basketball publications: Athlon Sports, Lindy's College Basketball, Street & Smith's, USA Today Sports Weekly and The Sporting News. The latest preseason honor came from Kyle Whelliston of the website midmajority.com, who picked Jackson as one of his nine Mid-Major Stars to Watch for the 2006-07 campaign.

Creating & Creating - Senior guard Derek Coleman, who proved himself an accurate three-point shooter in 2005-06, has gotten off to a good start this year doing what he does best: creating opportunities for his teammates. Coleman dished out seven assists in the season opener against Florida International (11/13/06) and owns nine through two games in 2006-07. After entering this season ranked 11th all-time at Robert Morris for assists with 288, Coleman jumped into the top 10 and now ranks ninth all-time. A look at where Coleman ranks in career assists:

Name	Years	Assists
6. Gene Nabors	1995-2000	385
7. Brandon Jackson	1977-81	322
8. Maurice Carter	2001-05	301
9. Derek Coleman	2003-	297
10. Mark McCloud	1983-87	292

Creating & Creating II - Senior guard Derek Coleman's career-high 137 assists in 2005-06 helped him place his name in the top 10 in the Robert Morris single-season records. Coleman's total ranks tied for the eighth highest single-season total in school history with Andre Boyd (1987-1991), who dished out 137 assists in 1990-91. Coleman also became just the program's third player to lead the Northeast Conference in assists per game. He posted a league-best 4.72 assists per game average in 2005-06 and joined former Colonials Javier Smith (5.4 apg in 1996-97) and Wade Timmerman (6.5 apg in 1991-92) to pace the circuit in assists.

Five Against One - With the addition of seven new players in 2006-07, including four that stand 6'7" or taller, head coach Mark Schmidt will look to build depth on his bench and give his regular starters a breather. In 2005-06, forward's A.J. Jackson and Cori Boston and guards Derek Coleman, Tony Lee and Jeremy Chappell, all regular starters until Boston fell to an injury bug late in the season, combined for an amazing 84.7 percent (1,810-of-2,136) of RMU's offense and 74.5 percent (780-of-1,047) of the club's rebounds.

2005-06 Starting Lineups (F, F, G, G, G) and RMU's Record:

- Boston, Harris (C), Clark, Coleman, Chappell (0-1)
- Jackson, Harris (C), Coleman, Chappell, Lee (2-1)
- Jackson, Harris (C), Coleman, Boston, Lee (0-1)
- Jackson, Boston, Coleman, Chappell, Lee (11-7)
- Jackson, Sénat, Coleman, Chappell, Lee (2-4)

2006-07 Starting Lineups (F, C, G, G, G) and RMU's Record:

- Jackson, Harris, Coleman, Lee, Chappell (2-0)

Settling In - With the return of senior center Freddie Harris in 2006-07, Robert Morris has the regular starting lineup that head coach Mark Schmidt envisioned before Harris went down with a foot injury five games into the 2005-06 campaign. Harris has started with fellow Colonials A.J. Jackson, Derek Coleman, Tony Lee and Jeremy Chappell just five times so far in the last two seasons, with RMU owning a record of 4-1 in those games.

Three For Me, Three for You - One could say that Robert Morris had its most prolific season in school history in regard to three-point shooting in 2005-06, establishing a new school record for team three-point field goals with 260. That total shattered the former school mark of 213, set in 2003-04. In 2005-06, the Colonials broke the single-season school record for three-pointers for the third time in five seasons under head coach Mark Schmidt. Over the course of the club's last 12 games of the 2005-06 campaign and the first games of 2006-07 season, the Colonials are averaging an even 9.8 three-pointers per game while shooting 39.8 percent (137-for-344) from beyond the arc.

Leaders of the Pack

The Northeast Conference features four schools with duos that combined to score at least 25.0 points per game in 2005-06. Topping the list for the third time in the last four years is Robert Morris, which features senior forward A.J. Jackson and sophomore guard Jeremy Chappell. The duo, led by Jackson's 17.0 ppg average in 2005-06, combined to average 31.1 ppg last season. Chappell averaged 14.1 points per game as a freshman in 2005-06. Entering the 2003-04 and 2004-05 campaigns, Robert Morris had the top returning scoring duo thanks to former forward Chaz McCrommon and former guard Maurice Carter. The top mark by an NEC returning scoring duo was McCrommon and Carter, who averaged 35.5 points game entering 2003-04.

Marshall Memorial Classic

39 On a Dime - One can point to senior forward A.J. Jackson as a key reason Robert Morris was able to hang around the upper half of the Northeast Conference standings in 2005-06. Jackson played an integral role for Robert Morris, and one only needs to look at his performance in an 89-77 victory over Quinnipiac (2/12/06) to understand why. Jackson established a career-high with 39 points in the win and also added 11 rebounds for his 13th double-double of the season while registering four blocks on the afternoon. To delve deeper into Jackson's impact, consider:

- His 39 points against Quinnipiac established a new Charles L. Sewall Center record for points by an RMU player, eclipsing the 35 former Colonial Maurice Carter (2001-05) scored in a 71-62 win over Sacred Heart (2/5/04)
- The 39 points is also ties the second highest single-game scoring total in school history. Former Colonial Aaron Thomas (2000-04) scored 39 in RMU's season-opening victory @ Missouri-Kansas City (11/22/02)
- His 14 double-doubles on the 2005-06 season is a new single-season school record, breaking the former mark of 10 that was held by Anthony Dickens (1985-90), who accomplished the feat during the 1989-90 campaign
- With 259 rebounds in 2005-06, Jackson posted the most rebounds in a season since Dickens grabbed 271 in 1989-90. Jackson's total ranks third all-time in the single-season annals.

Round Mound of Rebound - Senior forward A.J. Jackson was as consistent a contributor for Robert Morris in his first season in a Colonial uniform in 2005-06, as he finished the season tied for second in the Northeast Conference in rebounding (9.3 per game). Jackson trailed only Central Connecticut State's Obie Nwadike, who won the rebounding crown with an average of 10.3 caroms per contest, and tied with Wagner's Durrell Vinson (9.3 rpg). Only one Colonial in school history prior to Jackson's campaign in 2005-06 averaged better than 9.0 rebounds per game, when former Colonial Earl Cureton (1976-77) averaged 10.5 caroms a contest in RMU's inaugural Division I campaign in 1976-77. Jackson finishing third in the NEC in rebounding marks the highest showing by a Colonial since 1999-2000, when Steve Pettyjohn (1998-2000) finished second in the circuit (8.4 rpg).

Double Your Pleasure - Thanks to 15 points and 10 rebounds @ Long Island (2/16/06) last season, senior forward A.J. Jackson notched his Northeast Conference-best 14th double-double of the 2005-06 campaign. His 14 double-doubles established a new single-season school record, eclipsing the 10 former Colonial Anthony Dickens (1985-90) posted during the 1989-90 campaign. Jackson's 14 double-doubles was also the most by an NEC player since Central Connecticut State's Ron Robinson posted 14 in 2003-04.

Your History Lesson - RMU is the only school ever to jump from junior college to NCAA Division I in the same year (1976), and the Colonials are the NEC record holder for league titles and subsequent NCAA Tournament appearances with five. Robert Morris also is one of two NEC teams to own a victory in the NCAA Tournament, garnering a 64-54 win over Georgia Southern in the 1983 opening round game. RMU has never played in the NIT. The NCAA games are ...

1982 NCAA Mideast Regional
Indiana 92, Robert Morris 62

1983 NCAA Mideast Regional
Robert Morris 64, Georgia Southern 54
Purdue 55, Robert Morris 53

1989 NCAA Mideast Regional

Multimedia - Listen to all of RMU's 2005-06 men's basketball games on WPIT-AM 73 (Pittsburgh), the flagship radio station of Robert Morris University athletics since 1996. In his 20th season as the Voice of the Colonials, Chris Shovlin calls the play-by-play action, while Jim Elias handles color duties for the fourth straight year. In 2004-05, Shovlin called his 500th Robert Morris men's basketball broadcast. Each of RMU's games are also heard live and archived on the internet at www.sports.yahoo.com. "The Mark Schmidt Show" is heard on WPIT 15 minutes before and again after the game.

2006 Northeast Conference Preseason Coaches Poll

According to a poll of league head coaches, Robert Morris was been picked to finish second in the Northeast Conference in 2006-07. It marks the highest preseason ranking for the Colonials ever, matching their second-place preseason prediction prior to the 1991-92 campaign. RMU received five first-place votes, with the other six going to Monmouth, which was tabbed as the preseason favorite.

Following Monmouth and Robert Morris in the top five in the poll are Long Island, Central Connecticut State and Quinnipiac. The Blue Devils and Bobcats were picked to tie for fourth in the poll. Rounding out the annual poll is Wagner, Fairleigh Dickinson, St. Francis (N.Y.), Sacred Heart, Mount St. Mary's and Saint Francis (Pa.).

As well as being picked second in the preseason poll, Robert Morris placed senior forward A.J. Jackson on the 2006-07 NEC preseason all-conference team. Joining Jackson are forwards Marques Alston of Monmouth and Obie Nwadike of Central Connecticut State and guards Jarrid Frye of Sacred Heart and James Williams of Long Island.

Conducted annually, NEC coaches have failed to correctly forecast the eventual league champion since selecting Mount St. Mary's to win it all in 1998-99, and have proven inaccurate in 17 of the last 19 years.

This year marks the eighth time that Monmouth has been selected the Northeast Conference's preseason favorite by league head coaches, the most in conference history by a wide margin.

The Need for Three

The Colonials have relied heavily on the three-point shot under the direction of Mark Schmidt during his six years as head coach, with evidence the club's three-point field goal totals. In 2005-06 RMU shattered the team record for three-pointers with 260, eclipsing the club's old mark of 213, which was set in 2003-04. On the 2005-06 campaign, RMU averaged 8.97 three-pointers a game to lead the Northeast Conference. Since the start of the 2001-02 season, the Colonials lead the NEC in three-pointers made per game (7.53), ahead of St. Francis (N.Y.), which has averaged 7.43 three-pointers a game. A breakdown of the NEC's top five teams in three-pointers made since the beginning of the 2001-02 campaign ...
