Southpointe Leadership Academy Supervision and Leadership Clinic

Organizations today face economic and competitive stresses that require more efficient and developed leadership strategies. The Southpointe Leadership Academy, presented by Robert Morris University, is designed to reinforce the building blocks of leadership excellence and address the challenges that arise as businesses evolve.

The academy is designed for working professionals and the Supervision and Leadership Clinic consists of three half-day sessions, March 14, March 21 and March 28, 2012 from 8.30 am to 12.30 pm. RMU experts will lead the sessions and partner with Columbia Gas at its site in the Southpointe Business Park:

Session I

Leadership and Teams

Overview of leadership
Leadership styles
Self-assessment
Motivating and inspiring teams
Diversity (age, race, and gender)

Session II

Culture, Communication, and Delegating

Conflict resolution and negotiation
Managing different personalities
Managing difficult people
Ethics and doing the right thing
Communication and delegating

Session III

Corporate Leadership and Lifelong Learning
