Top Story - The Robert Morris University men's basketball team closes out its two-game road swing to open its 2005-06 season Wednesday when it travels across town to square off with Pittsburgh for a 7:30 p.m. non-conference tilt. The Colonials opened their 30th season of Division I basketball with an 80-61 loss @ St. Bonaventure (11/18/05) in which the club was without junior forward A.J. Jackson and sophomore guard Tony Lee, who each missed the game due to injury. Both are expected to receive limited playing time tonight against the Panthers. RMU opens its 2005-06 home slate Saturday, Nov. 26, by hosting Lock Haven at the Charles L. Sewall Center for a 7:30 p.m. tilt and will close out the month of November by hosting Maine Monday, Nov. 28, also at 7:30 p.m.

Quick Stat of the Night - Despite the graduation of the program's top two three-point threats each of the last two years, Robert Morris hasn't missed a beat with regard to its ability to hit the three-pointer. In RMU's season opener @ St. Bonaventure (11/18/05), the Colonials finished 8-for-20 (40.0 percent) from beyond the arc, including four trifectas from junior guard Steve Lancaster. Lancaster finished 4-for-7 in three-point field goals and was joined by sophomore guard Cori Boston (2), junior guard Derek Coleman (1) and freshman guard Jeremy Chappell (1) in hitting trifectas on the evening.

Wednesday's Opponent and the All-Time Series - The Colonials and Panthers will be facing off for the 25th time Wednesday night, with Pittsburgh holding a 24-0 advantage in the all-time series. In last year's contest at the Petersen Events Center the Panthers downed RMU, 83-59. In that game Robert Morris held a 30-26 lead in the first half but failed to score the rest of the stanza as Pittsburgh used a 16-0 spurt to take a 42-30 lead into halftime. In the game former Colonials Mark Anderson, Chas McCrommon and Maurice Carter each scored in double figures, as Anderson led the way with 18 points on 7-of-10 shooting. Carter added 17 points, while McCrommon chipped in with 14.

Schmidt vs. Pittsburgh ............... 0-4
The 2005-06 campaign marks Mark Schmidt's fifth year as head coach of the men's basketball program at Robert Morris University. He owns an overall record of 50-66 (.431), including a 39-35 (.527) mark in the Northeast Conference, and was named to his current post May 7, 2001. Schmidt guided the Colonials to an overall record of 14-15 in both 2003-04 and 2004-05. In 2004-05, Schmidt guided the Colonials to a third-place finish in the NEC, the program's best standing since 2000. During the 2003-04 campaign, RMU tied for fourth in the league and advanced to the NEC Tournament semifinals for the first time since 2000. In 2001-02, Schmidt led Robert Morris to a 12-18 overall record, the most victories for a first-year head coach in the 29-year history of the RMU men's basketball program.

Prior to RMU, Schmidt spent seven seasons as one of the nation's top assistants at Xavier University under current Wake Forest head coach Skip Prosser from 1994-2001. While with the Musketeers, Schmidt played a dual role, serving as both a coach and the program's top recruiter. His coaching responsibilities centered mostly around the post players, and he helped develop and recruit players at Xavier that have moved on to the professional ranks, including James Posey (Memphis Grizzlies), David West (New Orleans Hornets), Romain Sato (San Antonio Spurs), Lionel Chalmers (Minnesota Timberwolves) and David Young (Seattle Supersonics). Prior to his stint with Xavier, Schmidt served one year as an assistant at Loyola College in Baltimore, Md., also under Prosser. He also spent two seasons at Penn State University under Bruce Parkhill from 1991-93, and started his coaching career as an assistant at St. Michael's College in Vermont from 1989-91.

Schmidt's playing career was highlighted by four years as a guard/forward at Boston College, where he received his bachelor's degree in business administration and management. While with the Eagles, Schmidt played a dual role, serving as both a coach and the program's top recruiter. ## * 2005-06 statistics

Scouting the Panthers - Pittsburgh enters Wednesday night's game with the Colonials ### with an overall record of 1-0 after defeating St. Peter's, 82-71, in its 2005-06 season ### opener Nov. 19 at the Petersens Events Center. Against the Peacocks junior center Aaron

Gray registered his first career double-double with 13 points and 11 rebounds, while ### senior guard Carl Krauser added 13 points, six rebounds and five assists. Thanks to the ### victory, Pitt moved to 29-1 in non-conference games at the Petersens Events Center and ### 49-5 all-time in the four-year old building.

Pittsburgh Head Coach - In his third season as head coach of the Panthers is Jamie

Dixon (Texas Christian '87), who owns an overall record of 52-14 (.788) entering

Wednesday's game against the Colonials. In 2003-04, Dixon became the first rookie

head coach in Big East Conference history to earn both Coach of the Year honors and ### guide his team to the league's regular-season title. Last season Dixon guided Pittsburgh ### to an overall record of 20-9, including 10-6 in Big East action, and a spot in the NCAA ### Tournament.

RMU's Last Game - Robert Morris opened its 30th season of Division I basketball with ### an 80-61 loss at St. Bonaventure Nov. 23. The Bonnies jumped out of the gates to a

10-2 lead in the first four and-a-half minutes of the game thanks to the three-pointer,

as Terron Diggs hit one at the 18:23 mark of the first half to give the Bonnies a 4-0 ### lead, then Patrick Lottin came off the bench to hit two straight to give SBU an eight-### point advantage. RMU finally notched its first field goal of the game with 15:22 left in ### the first half when junior center Freddie Harris hit a jumper to close the gap to 10-4.

The first field goal of the season seemed to spark Robert Morris, as the Colonials used ### a 7-2 run to close their deficit to 12-9 with 13:29 left before halftime. Freshman guard

Jeremy Chappell scored a layup for RMU during the spurt, while junior guard Derek

Coleman drained a three-pointer. The Colonials, however, couldn't overcome the hot ### shooting of Lottin, who finished a perfect 5-for-5 from beyond the three-point arc in ### the first half in sparking St. Bonaventure. Lottin's third trifecta of the first half after a ### layup by Chappell gave the Bonnies a 19-11 advantage, and he helped SBU up their ### lead to 25-16 with his fifth three-pointer with 8:24 to play before the break. Down 30-20

at the five-minute mark of the first half after Ivan Kovacevic finished 1-for-2 from ### the free-throw line for SBU, the Colonials closed their deficit to 30-24 after a free throw

by Chappell and a three-pointer from sophomore guard Cori Boston. The Bonnies were ### able to up their lead to double digits for the third time of the half thanks to a 10-4 run ### to close out the stanza and push their lead to a 40-28 halftime advantage. Robert Morris ### opened the second half on a 5-0 spurt to close its deficit to 40-33, but Lottin contin### ued his hot shooting, draining his sixth straight three-pointer of the contest at the 18:39

mark of the second half to push the Bonnie lead back to double digits, 43-33.

Completing the Triumvirate

Sophomore forward Cori Boston went through an up-and-down season as a freshman in 2004-05, not only serving as the understudy to two-time All-Northeast Conference First Team selection Chaz McCormmon but battling various injuries throughout the year. Boston, one of three players on the club from Charlestown High School in Boston, Mass., looks to rebound in 2005-06 with increased playing time. He started his season off on the right foot in RMU’s season opener @ St. Bonaventure (11/18/05), scoring a career-high 16 points in his first career start while also adding four rebounds. Boston also showed improved concentration at the free-throw line, converting six of his seven opportunities against the Bonnies. In 2004-05, Boston finished the season just 3-for-12 from the charity stripe.

A Sign of Things to Come

Freshman guards Jeremy Chappell and Jonathan Clark joined a small fraternity in Robert Morris basketball history @ St. Bonaventure (11/18/05) in RMU’s 2005-06 season opener. By being members of the starting lineup, Chappell and Clark became just the third and fourth Colonials in school history to earn a start as a true freshman in their first collegiate game. The other two Colonials to start as true freshman in their Robert Morris debuts were Keith Jones (1995-99) and Forest Grant (1980-84). Both of those two went on to solid careers at Robert Morris, as each finished with over 1,000 points (Grant - 1,494 and Jones - 1,277), while Jones ranks second in career rebounds (642) and Grant is the all-time leader in assists (555).

Solid Debut

With the loss of two of RMU’s top five scorers in school history from last season in former Colonials Chaz McCormmon and Maurice Carter, Robert Morris needs to find offense in 2005-06. Two of RMU’s newcomers came through in the club’s 2005-06 season-opener @ St. Bonaventure (11/18/05), as junior guard Steve Lancaster came off the bench to provide 13 points, while starting center Freddie Harris finished with 10 points. Lancaster, who finished with 88 three-pointers at Neosho County C.C. last season in the last 25 games to 96 assists (3.84 per game) against 41 turnovers.

Washington “D.C.”

While guard Derek Coleman has been known as a pass first, score second player over his first two years with the club, the junior will be counted upon to pick up his offensive production in 2005-06. Coleman put together an all-around game in RMU’s season opener @ St. Bonaventure (11/18/05), leading the team in both rebounds (5) and assists (6) while adding seven points on the evening. Those numbers are indicative of what Coleman did in the second half of the 2004-05 campaign, when he averaged 10.8 points, 4.2 rebounds and 4.4 assists in the last 14 games of the season.

The Full 40

Junior point guard Derek Coleman and freshman guard Jeremy Chappell each logged a full 40 minutes of action in RMU’s season opener @ St. Bonaventure (11/18/05), with Chappell finishing with eight points and four rebounds against the Bonnies. Chappell had all eight of his points and three of his rebounds in the first half, as he took just one shot in the second half while caroming just one rebounds.

Two Pair

Robert Morris hopes to replace the productivity of former center Mark Anderson, who averaged 13.5 points and 5.0 rebounds per game as a senior in 2004-05, with the addition of junior centers Freddie Harris and Donnie Palmer. The two combined for 17 points on 6-for-10 shooting from the floor in RMU’s season opener @ St. Bonaventure while combining for two rebounds.

Running the Show

Not only did junior guard Derek Coleman pick up his offensive production as the 2004-05 campaign wore on for Robert Morris, but he continued to shine as the floor general. After a slow start, in his last 24 games of the season he dished out 90 assists (3.75 per game) and registered 22 steals while committing just 39 turnovers. That trend continued in RMU’s 2005-06 season opener @ St. Bonaventure as Coleman registered six assists while committing just two turnovers to help push his totals in the last 25 games to 96 assists (3.84 per game) against 41 turnovers.
Defense Wins Championships - Head coach Mark Schmidt has preached over the course of his five years as head coach that a suffocating defense will lead to victories, and his mantra was proven correct in 2004-05. In RMU’s 14 victories on the 2004-05 campaign, opponents shot just 43.7 percent (326-for-746) from the field and averaged just 61.5 points per game. In contrast, in the 15 losses suffered by the Colonials in 2004-05, opponents converted 51.6 percent (425-for-824) of its field goal attempts and averaged 78.3 points per contest. The bell rings true when the statement is made that defense wins championships, as the Colonials were 12-3 on the 2004-05 campaign when holding their opponent under 70 points in a game. In all under Schmidt, RMU is 41-15 (.732) when holding opponents under 70 points a contest.

Three Ball, Side Pocket - While defense plays an important role in the current coaching structure of Robert Morris basketball, so does the three-point shot. In RMU’s five seasons with head coach Mark Schmidt at the helm, the Colonials have averaged 7.14 three-pointers per game and have hit at least 10 three-pointers in a game a total of 27 times. Robert Morris will look to continue that trend in 2005-06 despite the loss of the top two three-point shooters in school history each of the last two seasons. Former forward Aaron Thomas (2000-04) finished his career with a school record 218 trifectas, while former guard Maurice Carter (2001-05) finished second in the RMU annals with 197 career three-point field goals. Thomas and Carter, in fact, finished as the top three-point tandem in school history. Junior guard Derek Coleman returns as the top three-point threat for Robert Morris, having hit 45 trifectas a year ago to finish second the club. A look at the top three-point Robert Morris tandems in school history:

Man of Steel - One of the most pleasant surprises of the 2004-05 campaign for Robert Morris came courtesy of sophomore guard Tony Lee, who played with a tenacity and toughness not seen from someone in a Colonial uniform in a long time. In 29 games, Lee averaged 7.9 points and 5.4 rebounds per game while also leading the club in steals with 50. Lee will be expected to improve on those numbers during his sophomore season, and all indications point that he could do that. As a member of the starting lineup, Lee averaged 9.4 points and 6.5 rebounds a contest and registered 43 of his team-high 50 steals. Lee missed RMU’s 2005-06 season opener @ St. Bonaventure (11/18/05) and is questionable for Wednesday’s game @ Pittsburgh.

Steal City - Thanks to the emergence of sophomore guard Tony Lee as a defensive specialist for Robert Morris last season, the Colonials finished the 2004-05 season ranked fourth in the Northeast Conference with an average of 7.41 steals per game. It marked the highest average by the Colonials under fifth-year head coach Mark Schmidt and Lee was the leader, ranking third in the circuit with an average of 1.72 per game. Lee was even better against league opponents, as his average of 2.11 picks per game (38 in 18 games) led the NEC.

Freebies - One area the Colonials have excelled in under head coach Mark Schmidt in his four years at the helm of the Robert Morris men’s basketball program has been the free-throw line. In 2003-04, RMU led the Northeast Conference and ranked eighth in NCAA Division I in free-throw shooting with a success rate of 75.4 percent (384-for-509). After a slow start to the 2004-05 campaign shooting from the free-throw line, RMU upped its success rate to 69.8 percent (397-for-569) on the year, which ranked fifth in the NEC. The Colonials got off to a good start at the charity stripe on the 2005-06 campaign by converting 15 of their 18 opportunities, a success rate of 83.3 percent.

Marshall Memorial Classic
Automatic - While the Colonials will search for offense in 2005-06 after the loss of its top three scorers and hope its two remaining leading scorers, junior guard Derek Coleman and sophomore guard Tony Lee, pick up the slack, Coleman has one key element in his favor. Coleman has proven to be nearly automatic at the free-throw line, as he enters Wednesday’s game @ Pittsburgh with a career shooting percentage of 80.0 percent (64-for-80) from the charity stripe.

Your History Lesson - RMU is the only school ever to jump from junior college to NCAA Division I in the same year (1976), and the Colonials are the NEC record holder for league titles and subsequent NCAA Tournament appearances with five. Robert Morris also owns the only victory in the NCAA Tournament among NEC teams, a 64-54 win over Georgia Southern in the 1983 opening round game. RMU has never played in the NIT. The NCAA games are ...

1982 NCAA Mideast Regional
Indiana 92, Robert Morris 62

1989 NCAA Mideast Regional
Arizona 94, Robert Morris 60

1992 NCAA Mideast Regional
UCLA 73, Robert Morris 53

In his 19th season as the Voice of the Colonials, Chris Shovlin calls the play-by-play action, while Jim Elias handles color duties for the fourth straight year. In 2004-05, Shovlin called his 500th Robert Morris men’s basketball broadcast. 2005 NEC Coaches Poll

According to a poll of league head coaches, Robert Morris was picked to finish 10th in the Northeast Conference in 2005-06. Picked as the preseason favorite is Fairleigh Dickinson, which earned nine of a possible 11 first-place votes. Wagner, picked to finish tied for second, and Long Island, tabbed fourth, received the other first-place votes. Named to the 2005 All-NEC preseason team were Gordon Klaiber and Chad Timberlake of FDU, Sacred Heart’s Joey Henley, Landy Thompson of Mount St. Mary’s and James Williams of Long Island.

- Transfer from ETSU (sat out the 2004-05 season)

The Need for Three

The Colonials have relied heavily on the three-point shot under the direction of Mark Schmidt during his four years as head coach, compiling a single-season school record 213 in 2003-04, two more than the 2001-02 club, which set a school record with 211.

On the 2004-05 campaign, RMU averaged 7.00 three-pointers a game and was led by former guard Maurice Carter with 47, while junior guard Derek Coleman added 45.

Since the start of the 2001-02 season, the Colonials rank third in the conference in three-pointers made per game (7.14), trailing just St. Francis (N.Y.) (7.78 per game) and Fairleigh Dickinson (7.16). A breakdown of the NEC's top five teams in three-pointers made since the beginning of the 2001-02 campaign ...
