Charleston Southern (4-2) @ Robert Morris (3-4)
Saturday, December 17, 2005 at 7:30 p.m. EST
Charles L. Sewall Center (3,056) - Moon Township, Pa.
Radio: WPIT-AM 73 (Chris Shovlin - play-by-play & Jim Elias - color)
On the internet (live and archived) at: www.sports.yahoo.com

Top Story - The Robert Morris University men's basketball team returns home to the Charles L. Sewall Center Saturday night and returns to non-conference action by hosting Charleston Southern for a 7:30 p.m. tilt. The Colonials are coming off a 90-85 victory @ Quinnipiac (12/10/05) to open their Northeast Conference schedule and Saturday's game begins RMU's final three non-conference games of the 2005-06 campaign. After hosting Charleston Southern, Robert Morris will travel to Iowa (Dec. 22) for an 8:05 p.m. contest for its final non-league road game of the season before returning home to host Medaille at the Sewall Center Thursday, Dec. 29, for a 7:30 p.m. game.

Quick Stat of the Night - Robert Morris looks to even its record at .500 for the second time Saturday night when it hosts Charleston Southern at the Sewall Center, as a victory over the Buccaneers would push the overall record of the Colonials to 4-4. A win would also keep RMU perfect at home, as the Colonials have won both of their previous games in the friendly confines of the Sewall Center. Robert Morris has started 3-0 at home for the first time since moving to the Sewall Center in the 2003-04 campaign, when RMU started 5-0 at home en route to a 9-3 ledger at the Sewall Center on the year under then third-year head coach Mark Schmidt.

Saturday's Opponent and the All-Time Series - Robert Morris and Charleston Southern will face off for just the second time Saturday night, with the Buccaneers having claimed the inaugural meeting between the two clubs last season, 79-70, in Charleston, S.C. Saturday's tilt also ends the home-and-home series between the Colonials and Bucs. In last year's meeting, Charleston Southern used a 19-4 run over 10 minutes in the first half to take a 30-15 lead it would never relinquish. Guards Derek Coleman and Tony Lee each scored 11 points for the Colonials in the setback.

The 2005-06 campaign marks Mark Schmidt's fifth year as head coach of the men's basketball program at Robert Morris University. He owns an overall record of 53-69 (.434), including a 40-35 (.533) mark in the Northeast Conference, and was named to his current post May 7, 2001. Schmidt guided the Colonials to an overall record of 14-15 in both 2003-04 and 2004-05. In 2004-05, Schmidt guided the Colonials to a third-place finish in the NEC, the program's best standing since 2000. During the 2003-04 campaign, RMU tied for fourth in the league and advanced to the NEC Tournament semifinals for the first time since 2000. In 2001-02, Schmidt led Robert Morris to a 12-18 overall record, the most victories for a first-year head coach in the 29-year history of the RMU men's basketball program.

Prior to RMU, Schmidt spent seven seasons as one of the nation's top assistants at Xavier University under current Wake Forest head coach Skip Prosser from 1994-2001. While with the Musketeers, Schmidt played a dual role, serving as both a coach and the program's top recruiter. His coaching responsibilities centered mostly around the post players, and he helped develop and recruit players at Xavier that have moved on to the professional ranks, including James Posey (Memphis Grizzlies), David West (New Orleans Hornets), Romain Sato (San Antonio Spurs), Lionel Chalmers (Minnesota Timberwolves) and David Young (Seattle Supersonics). Prior to his stint with Xavier, Schmidt served one year as an assistant at Loyola College in Baltimore, Md., also under Prosser. He also spent two seasons at Penn State University under Bruce Parkhill from 1991-93, and started his coaching career as an assistant at St. Michael's College in Vermont from 1989-91.

Schmidt's playing career was highlighted by four years as a guard/forward at Boston College, where he received his bachelor's degree in business administration and management with a concentration in marketing in 1985. The Eagles went 22-10 and made the NCAA Tournament in his first of two seasons at Penn State University under Bruce Parkhill from 1991-93, and started his coaching career as an assistant at St. Michael's College in Vermont from 1989-91.

Breakout - Robert Morris broke out of its early season shooting woes in a big way in its 90-85 victory @ Quinnipiac (12/10/05), finishing 27-of-57 from the field, a season-high shooting percentage of 47.4 percent. The Colonials were bolstered by solid shooting performances from junior forward A.J. Jackson and junior guard Derek Coleman, who combined to hit 12 of their 19 shots (63.2 percent) from the floor. Jackson seems to be settling into a groove offensively for the Colonials, as he enters RMU’s tilt against Charleston Southern have converted 11 of his last 14 field goal attempts from the field in his last two games, a success rate of 78.6 percent. That output has pushed his season shooting percentage to 45.5 percent, which ranks 15th in the Northeast Conference.

Balancing Act - Despite the loss of three of the program's top eight all-time scorers in each of the last two seasons, Robert Morris hasn't struggled in finding players to step up and take the place of former All-NEC performers Chaz McCormon and Maurice Carter, as well as former forward Aaron Thomas. Through the first seven games of the season, each of RMU's five starters in forwards A.J. Jackson and Cori Boston and guards Derek Coleman, Tony Lee and Jeremy Chappell are averaging at least 10.0 points per game. Jackson leads the way with a 15.5 points per game average, while Boston ranks fifth on the club by scoring at a 10.0 points per game clip. Robert Morris is the only Northeast Conference school that features five of the league's top 30 scorers. In fact, all of the other league schools have at most three players in the top 30 in scoring. In its 30-year Division I history, the most players RMU has had finish with a scoring average of at least 10.0 points per game was four, coming during the 2002-03 and 1980-81 seasons.

Offensively Speaking - Junior guard Derek Coleman, known more of a pass first, score second type of player, has been asked to up his offensive production in 2005-06 after the loss of three of the top eight scorers in school history each of the last two seasons. After a slow start, Coleman has come through, as he averaged 19.5 points in two games last week. Coleman is coming off a career-high 26-point performance in a 90-85 win @ Quinnipiac (12/10/05) in which he converted six of his nine field goal opportunities, including tying a career-high with five three-pointers.

Steel City - As well as bringing a more intense nature in the rebounding department this season, Robert Morris has also immensely improved in the amount of pressure it supplies to its opponents. RMU began to show its defensive prowess last year with the addition of guard Tony Lee, who ranked third in the circuit with an average of 1.72 picks per game. As a team last season the Colonials averaged 7.41 steals a contest, the best mark under head coach Mark Schmidt and good enough to rank fourth in the NEC. Robert Morris has continued its defensive mindset in 2005-06, as the Colonials enter Saturday's game against Charleston Southern ranked second in the NEC in steals with an average of 7.71 picks per game, behind only Fairleigh Dickinson (8.00).

Round Mound of Rebound - Junior forward A.J. Jackson has been as consistent a contributor for Robert Morris in the early portion of his Colonial career, as he enters Saturday's game against Charleston Southern as the only Northeast Conference player averaging a double-double, as he scores at a 15.5 points per game clip while pulling down an average of 10.0 caroms a contest. With his third double-double in four games @ New Hampshire (12/6/05), Jackson became the first Colonial in recorded history to have four straight double-digit rebound games. Over the last five contests, Jackson is averaging 11.0 rebounds a game. Jackson is looking to become just the second Robert Morris player in school history to average over 10 rebounds a game in a season. Former Colonial Earl Curleton who played when Robert Morris was both a junior college and a Division I institution, is the only player in school history to average over 10 rebounds a contest in a season (10.4 per game).

The Chappell Show - Freshman guard Jeremy Chappell came through in the clutch for the Colonials in their 2005-06 Northeast Conference opener @ Quinnipiac (12/10/05), scoring 16 of his career-high 20 points in the last 12 minutes of the game to help RMU turn a 10-point deficit into a five-point victory. Chappell also flashed his all-around game against the Bobcats, pulling down five rebounds and recording career-highs in assists (5) and steals (4). For those efforts he was named the NEC’s Rookie of the Week Dec. 12, the first weekly honor of his career.
Consistent Cori - Sophomore forward Cori Boston went through an up-and-down season as a freshman in 2004-05, not only serving as the understudy to two-time All-Northeast Conference First Team selection Chaz McCrommon but battling various injuries throughout the year. Boston, one of three players on the club from Charlestown High School in Boston, Mass., has been a pleasant surprise for Robert Morris in the early portion of the 2005-06 season. On the young season Boston is averaging 10.0 points and 3.7 caroms a contest and has scored in double figures in four of RMU’s seven games, including a career-high 16 points @ St. Bonaventure (11/18/05).

Concentration - A key reason sophomore forward Cori Boston has improved with increased playing time this season has been due to his ability to concentrate at the free-throw line. After converting just three of his 12 opportunities from the charity stripe as a freshman in 2004-05, Boston has converted 14-of-16 this season to lead the Colonials in free-throw percentage (87.5 percent). Boston currently ranks third in the Northeast Conference in free-throw percentage behind Drew Shubik of Sacred Heart (88.9) and Mark Porter of Wagner (87.8).

Iron Men - Junior point guard Derek Coleman and freshman guard Jeremy Chappell each logged a full 40 minutes of action in RMU’s season opener @ St. Bonaventure (11/18/05), with Chappell finishing with eight points and four rebounds against the Bonnies. Chappell had all eight of his points and three of his rebounds in the first half. In the early going of the 2005-06 campaign, a trend is developing that Coleman and Chappell could quickly become RMU’s two iron men this season. Through the first seven games of the season, Chappell has played 238 of a possible 280 minutes, while Coleman has logged 236 minutes of a possible 280. Coleman has played at least 37 minutes in four of RMU’s seven games, including a full 40 in each of his last two contests. Chappell has logged a full 40 minutes in a game once so far on the 2005-06 campaign and is coming off a 39-minute performance in a 90-85 win @ Quinnipiac (12/10/05) in RMU’s Northeast Conference opener.

A Dime a Dozen - Junior guard Derek Coleman, after starting RMU’s season-opener @ St. Bonaventure (11/18/05) at shooting guard due to the injury of sophomore guard Tony Lee, moved back to point guard @ Pittsburgh (11/23/05) and while scoring 10 points established a new career-high in assists with eight. Through seven games on the 2005-06 season Coleman has dished out 36 assists while committing just 19 turnovers, continuing a trend from the 2004-05 campaign. Thanks to his totals in RMU’s first seven games this season Coleman owns 126 assists (4.08 per game) against 58 turnovers in his last 31 games.

Defense Wins Championships - Head coach Mark Schmidt has preached over the course of his five years as head coach that a suffocating defense will lead to victories, and his mantra was proven correct in 2004-05. In RMU’s 14 victories on the 2004-05 campaign, opponents shot just 43.7 percent (326-for-746) from the field and averaged just 61.5 points per game. In contrast, in the 15 losses suffered by the Colonials in 2004-05, opponents converted 51.6 percent (425-for-824) of its field goal attempts and averaged 78.3 points per contest. The bell rings true when the statement is made that defense wins championships, as the Colonials were 12-3 on the 2004-05 campaign when holding their opponent under 70 points in a game. In all under Schmidt, RMU is 43-15 (.741) when holding opponents under 70 points a contest, including 2-0 so far on the 2005-06 season.

2005-06 Starting Lineups (F, C, G, G, G) and RMU’s Record:
-- Boston, Harris, Clark, Coleman, Chappell (0-1)
-- Jackson, Harris, Coleman, Chappell, Lee (2-1)
-- Jackson, Harris, Coleman, Boston, Lee (0-1)

* Northeast Conference Tournament
Marshall Memorial Classic
Imagine That - Robert Morris snapped an eight-game losing streak when shooting under 40 percent in its 62-53 victory over Maine (11/28/05). Despite converting just 31.9 percent (22-for-69) of their shots from the floor, the Colonials got the victory thanks in large part to crashing the boards, finishing with 45, including 25 offensive rebounds. The last time RMU shot less than 40 percent from the floor and won came in a 69-66 victory @ Sacred Heart (1/24/04). Ironically, the Colonials won that game thanks to 47 rebounds, including 15 offensive boards.

Your History Lesson - RMU is the only school ever to jump from junior college to NCAA Division I in the same year (1976), and the Colonials are the NEC record holder for league titles and subsequent NCAA Tournament appearances with five. Robert Morris also owns the only victory in the NCAA Tournament among NEC teams, a 64-54 win over Georgia Southern in the 1983 opening round game. RMU has never played in the NIT. The NCAA games are ...

1982 NCAA Mideast Regional
Indiana 92, Robert Morris 62

1983 NCAA Mideast Regional
Robert Morris 64, Georgia Southern 54

1989 NCAA Mideast Regional
Arizona 94, Robert Morris 60

1990 NCAA Mideast Regional
Kansas 79, Robert Morris 71

Multimedia - Listen to all of RMU’s 2005-06 men’s basketball games on WPIT-AM 73 (Pittsburgh), the flagship radio station of Robert Morris University athletics since 1996. In his 19th season as the Voice of the Colonials, Chris Shovlin calls the play-by-play action, while Jim Elias handles color duties for the fourth straight year. In 2004-05, Shovlin called his 500th Robert Morris men's basketball broadcast. Each of RMU’s games are also heard live and archived on the internet at www.sports.yahoo.com. “The Mark Schmidt Show” is heard on WPIT 15 minutes before and after the game. “The Mark Schmidt Show” is also heard on the public address system in the Charles L. Sewall Center after home games.

2005 NEC Coaches Poll
According to a poll of league head coaches, Robert Morris was picked to finish 10th in the Northeast Conference in 2005-06. Picked as the preseason favorite is Fairleigh Dickinson, which earned nine of a possible 11 first-place votes. Wagner, picked to finish tied for second, and Long Island, tabbed fourth, received the other first-place votes. Named to the 2005 All-NEC preseason team were Gordon Klaiber and Chad Timberlake of FDU, Sacred Heart’s Joey Henley, Landy Thompson of Mount St. Mary’s and James Williams of Long Island.

The Need for Three

The Colonials have relied heavily on the three-point shot under the direction of Mark Schmidt during his five years as head coach, compiling a single-season school record 213 in 2003-04, two more than the 2001-02 club, which set a school record with 211. On the 2004-05 campaign, RMU averaged 7.00 three-pointers a game and was led by former guard Maurice Carter with 47, while junior guard Derek Coleman added 45. Since the start of the 2001-02 season, the Colonials ranked second in the conference in three-pointers made per game (7.17), behind only St. Francis (N.Y.) (7.76 per game).
