Sal Buscaglia enters his first season at the helm of the Robert Morris University women's basketball team. Buscaglia, who is only the fifth head coach in Colonial history, takes over a program that went 1-26 in 2002-03 and has won only seven games in past three years. Last season, Buscaglia guided the Manhattan Jaspers to the NCAA Tournament and has guided three different institutions into postseason play. Buscaglia spent five seasons at Manhattan College (1998-2003), where he compiled a record of 79-65, including a 20-10 record in 2002-03 in helping guide the Jaspers to the NCAA Tournament. On his career, which also includes coaching stints at the University of Buffalo (1990-98) and Hilbert Junior College (1977-90), Buscaglia owns a career record of 487-191. Over his career, Buscaglia has five conference titles in 12 seasons at the Division I level and has averaged 18 victories per year. In his 12 years as a Division I head coach, Buscaglia has guided his teams to winning seasons in 11 of them. He also owns 12 Coach of the Year honors.

Buscaglia also has coaching experience with USA Basketball, having served as an assistant coach at the 1992 Summer Olympic Festival and as a Trial Coach at the 1989 Summer Olympic Festival. From 1986-93, Buscaglia served as head western division coach of the Empire State Games, helping coach the top players in the state.

A 1976 graduate of Canisius, Buscaglia owns a Bachelor of Science Degree in Business and Accounting and in 1989 earned a Master's Degree in Physical Education, also from Canisius. In 1980, Buscaglia received a Master's Degree in Business Education from the State University of New York College at Buffalo.

Assistant Coaches

Derrick Harrison is in his first season as an assistant coach at RMU. Harrison comes to the Colonials from Manhattan College, where he was an assistant coach for one season. Before joining Manhattan, he was head women's basketball coach and sports information director at City College of New York from 1999 until 2002. In his three seasons at CCNY, Harrison owned an overall record of 36-42, including a 24-18 mark in the CUNY Athletic Conference.

Toyelle Wilson begins her first season as an assistant coach with the Colonials. Wilson comes to the Colonials after closing out a four-year playing career at Manhattan College, under current RMU head coach Sal Buscaglia. In her final season with the Jaspers, Wilson was named Defensive Player of the Year for Manhattan and averaged 3.6 points and 2.6 rebounds per game.

Charlie Buscaglia begins his first season as an assistant coach with Robert Morris. Buscaglia comes to Robert Morris from Manhattan College where he assisted from 1998 until 2003. During his last two seasons with the Lady Jaspers, Buscaglia took on recruiting responsibilities. He graduated with his bachelors degree from Manhattan College in 2003.

Conf

RMU’s 36-point win over Seton Hill was the largest margin of victory for the Colonials since the 1994-95 season when they defeated Long Island by 38 points, 79-41.

A Huge Advantage - RMU’s 36-point win over Seton Hill was also the first against a non-conference opponent since Dec. 30, 2000 when the Colonials earned a 63-54 win over Samford in the Lady Griz Holiday Classic consolation game.

Getting a Victory Outside of Conference Play - The 72-36 victory over Seton Hill, Nov. 29 was the first win since Jan. 11, 2003 when the Colonials defeated UMBC 85-82 in triple-overtime.

The Colonials grabbed 57 rebounds in their 72-36 victory over Seton Hill, Nov. 29. It is the highest number of rebounds since Dec. 4, 1999 when RMU defeated Davis & Elkins by a score of 87-62 and grabbed a season-high 62 rebounds.

Pulling Down the Rebounds - The Colonials grabbed 57 rebounds in all of RMU’s contests this season.

Robert Morris grabbed a season-low 27 rebounds at West Virginia.

Points in 36 minutes of action. The Springfield, Ohio native made the most of her minutes, sinking 7-of-16 from the field, including 6-of-12 from behind the three-point arc. Burkett finished the contest with a career-high 23 points, grabbed five rebounds and added one block and one steal.

Breaking up the Play - Robert Morris finished the Seton Hill game with 18 steals. It is the most steals by the Colonials since they had 20 against Long Island, Jan. 2, 1997.

Getting Her Groove Back - Sophomore guard Amie Harris exploded in her first game as a sophomore scoring a career-high 20 points in 36 minutes of action. The Springfield, Ohio has since scored in double-figures in all four contests she has seen action in.

After scoring a career-high 20 against Navy, she finished with 14 against Seton Hill and 12 against Towson and West Virginia.

Getting the First Win of the Season - RMU’s 72-36 victory over Seton Hill, Nov. 29 was the first win since Jan. 11, 2003 when the Colonials defeated UMBC 85-82 in triple-overtime.

The Colonials shot a season-low 30.6 percent (25-of-82) from the field in their season opening loss to Navy, Nov. 21. Robert Morris only broke the 40.0 percent barrier four times during the whole 2002-03 season.
