COACHES CORNER

Sal Buscaglia enters his first season at the helm of the Robert Morris University women's basketball team. Buscaglia, who is only the fifth head coach in Colonial history, takes over a program that went 1-26 in 2002-03 and has won only seven games in past three years. Last season, Buscaglia guided the Manhattan Jaspers to the NCAA Tournament and has guided three different institutions into postseason play.

Buscaglia spent five seasons at Manhattan College (1998-2003), where he compiled a record of 79-65, including a 20-10 record in 2002-03 in helping guide the Jaspers to the NCAA Tournament. On his career, which also includes coaching stints at the University of Buffalo (1990-98) and Hilbert Junior College (1977-90), Buscaglia owns a career record of 487-191.

Over his career, Buscaglia has five conference titles in 12 seasons at the Division I level and has averaged 18 victories per year. In his 12 years as a Division I head coach, Buscaglia has guided his teams to winning seasons in 11 of them. He also owns 12 Coach of the Year honors.

Buscaglia also has coaching experience with USA Basketball, having served as an assistant coach at the 1992 Summer Olympic Festival and as a Trial Coach at the 1989 Summer Olympic Festival. From 1986-93, Buscaglia served as head western division coach of the Empire State Games, helping coach the top players in the state.

A 1976 graduate of Canisius, Buscaglia owns a Bachelor of Science Degree in Business and Accounting and in 1989 earned a Master's Degree in Physical Education, also from Canisius. In 1980, Buscaglia received a Master's Degree in Business Education from the State University of New York College at Buffalo.

Assistant Coaches

Derrick Harrison is in his first season as an assistant coach at RMU. Harrison comes to the Colonials from Manhattan College, where he was an assistant coach for one season. Before joining Manhattan, he was head women's basketball coach and sports information director at City College of New York from 1999 until 2002. In his three seasons at CCNY, Harrison owned an overall record of 36-42, including a 24-18 mark in the CUNY Athletic Conference.

Toyelle Wilson begins her first season as an assistant coach with the Colonials. Wilson comes to the Colonials after closing out a four-year playing career at Manhattan College, under current RMU head coach Sal Buscaglia. In her final season with the Jaspers, Wilson was named Defensive Player of the Year for Manhattan and averaged 3.6 points and 2.6 rebounds per game.

Charlie Buscaglia begins his first season as an assistant coach with Robert Morris. Buscaglia comes to Robert Morris from Manhattan College where he assisted from 1998 until 2003. During his last two seasons with the Lady Jaspers, Buscaglia took on recruiting responsibilities. He graduated with his bachelors degree from Manhattan College in 2003.

Facts and Figures from the Center Circle

History 101 - Tonight's game is the 36th meeting between the Colonials and the Blackbirds. Robert Morris leads the all-time series 23-12, but has lost the last five contests. In last seasons lone game against Long Island, the Colonials dropped a 53-41 decision.

RMU's Last Game - The Robert Morris University women's basketball resumed Northeast Conference action Thursday evening with a 77-67 loss to St. Francis (N.Y.) at the Charles L. Sewall Center. The Colonials fell to 1-10 on the season and are now 0-2 in the NEC while the Terriers improved their record to 2-9 and hold a 1-1 mark in the conference.

Robert Morris came out strong building an 8-2 lead off of a three-pointer and a bucket by freshman guard Jenna Burkett and a three-point play converted by junior center Sarah McDonald. The Terriers fought back and went on a 9 to 2 run to take a one-point lead at 11-10 with less than 16 minutes to play in the first half.

After flip-flopping the lead, Robert Morris gained a small cushion at 17-14 off a McDonald jumper at the 13:44 mark. St. Francis (N.Y.) again buckled down and scored the next 17 out of 19 points to gain its first double-digit lead at 31-19. RMU was able to stop the run and started one of its own, scoring the next nine points, capped off by a three-pointer by Burkett, to slash the Terriers lead to three.

SFNY's Catlin O'Malley hit a jumper at the 4:39 mark to give the Terriers a five-point advantage but then both teams went cold for the next 2:20 of the first half. Brittiny Porter of St. Francis (N.Y.) ended the drought by hitting a jumper and sinking a free throw and then O'Malley grabbed an offensive rebound and scored on the put back to give the Terriers the 38-28 lead with 1:34 left on the clock before intermission. Burkett drained her fourth three-pointer of the half and senior forward Johanna Stephens hit one-of-two free throws and made a layup in closing seconds to cut SFNY's halftime lead to 40-34.

St. Francis (N.Y.) hit two quick jumpers to pull ahead by ten early in the second half, but RMU stormed back and scored nine straight points to close the gap to one, 44-43, with 16:38 to play in the game. The Terriers then held RMU to one bucket while they scored eight points, including six by Kim Bennett, to take a seven-point lead at 52-45.

The Terriers kept the Colonials at bay for the next two minutes but then RMU started to chip away at the lead. With the score 55-49, sophomore guard DeAnna Chestnut drove the lane and scored, while Burkett hit a jumper and drained a three-pointer, sandwiched around a Terrier jumper, to put the score at 57-56 with 7:09 to play in the contest. The Colonials then forced a turnover and Stephens made a layup to give RMU its first lead since the 11:44 mark of the first stanza at 58-57.

The Terriers were able to stop the Colonials surge and scored the next eight points to pull ahead 65-58 with 3:48 to play. RMU could not get any closer and SFNY took home the 77-67 victory.

The Colonials were led by Burkett who scored a game-high 26 points. McDonald finished with 13 points and grabbed a game-high seven rebounds, while Stephens finished with ten.

Changing of the Tides - The Colonials have found its stroke from the floor in its last two contests. RMU hit 20-of-51 (39.2%) from the field in its 55-54 loss to Akron, Jan. 2 and hit a season-high 43.1 percent (25-of-58) in its loss to St. Francis (N.Y.), Jan. 8.

Threes Company - Robert Morris hit 7-of-15 three-point field goals in its 77-67 loss to St. Francis (N.Y.). The 46.7 percent from behind the arc was a season high for RMU. The three-point barrage was led by freshman guard Jenna Burkett, who drained a game-high six three-pointers.

Making a Lasting Impression - After averaging 8.1 minutes per game over the last 10 contests, senior forward Johanna Stephens played a season-high 27 minutes Jan. 8 in RMU’s loss to SFNY. The 5-9 senior scored a season-high 10 points and brought down four rebounds in the loss.

Making a Splash - Junior center Sarah McDonald came off the bench in RMU’s loss to Towson, Dec. 2 and tallied a season-high 11 points in just eight minutes of action. After that performance, the 6-2 center was inserted into the starting lineup. McDonald is currently averaging 5.6 points and 5.8 rebounds per game.

Breaking A Sweat - McDonald was a force to be reckoned with under the basket in RMU’s 61-47 loss to Pittsburgh, Dec. 19. The 6-2 center grabbed a career-high 14 rebounds, five of which were offensive. McDonald was the first player to finish with double-digit rebounds this season. On the year she leading the RMU squad in rebounds per game (5.8).

Buscaglia Signs First Recruits - RMU first-year head coach Sal Buscaglia had three players sign national letters of intent for the 2004-05 season. The recruits are 5-10 forward Tiffany Smith (Detroit, Mich. / Inkster), 5-7 guard DeSheyna Perry (Madison, Wisc. / Jefferson-Mo. J.C.) and 5-8 guard Avonte Williams (Stone Mountain, Ga. / Chamblee Charter).

Getting Her Groove Back - Sophomore guard Amie Harris exploded in her first game as a upperclassmen scoring a career-high 20 points in 36 minutes of action. The Springfield, Ohio native is currently second on the RMU squad in points per game (11.8) and has scored in double-figures in eight of the ten contests she has played in this season.
Robert Morris finished the Seton Hill game with 18 steals. It is the most steals by the Colonials since they had 20 against Long Island, Jan. 2, 1997.

A Huge Advantage - RMU’s 36-point win over Seton Hill was the largest margin of victory for the Colonials since the 1994-95 season when they defeated Long Island by 38 points, 79-41.

Getting a Victory Outside of Conference Play - The 72-36 victory over Seton Hill was also the first against a non-conference opponent since Dec. 30, 2000 when the Colonials earned a 63-54 win over Samford in the Lady Griz Holiday Classic consolation game.

Pulling Down the Rebounds - The Colonials grabbed 57 rebounds in their 72-36 victory over Seton Hill, Nov. 29. It is the highest number of rebounds since Dec. 4, 1999 when RMU defeated Davis & Elkins by a score of 87-62 and grabbed a season-high 62 rebounds.

Breaking up the Play - Robert Morris finished the Seton Hill game with 18 steals. It is the most steals by the Colonials since they had 20 against Long Island, Jan. 2, 1997.

Taking The Halftime Lead - Robert Morris has held the halftime lead in three out of its five games this season. The Colonials held the 30-27 halftime lead over Navy, Nov. 21, a 34-32 lead against Duquesne, Nov. 23, a 37-20 advantage over Seton Hill, Nov. 29 and a 27-25 lead over Akron, Jan. 2. The last time the Colonials held a halftime advantage over a non-conference opponent prior to this season was Nov. 25, 2000 in a 78-62 victory over Hofstra. RMU went into the intermission with a 30-25 advantage. In all of the 2002-03 season, the Colonials only led at halftime two times. They held the 36-27 lead in an eventual 85-82 triple-overtime win against UMBC, Jan. 11, 2003. The other time was a 36-22 lead that eventually was squandered in a 65-62 loss to St. Francis (N.Y), Feb. 10, 2003.

Blocking out the Past - The Robert Morris Colonials have blocked 27 shots this season (2.5 p/g), nine more than the 2002-03 team totaled.

Rejecting the Attempt - Freshman center/forward Sarah Bradley has eight blocks to her credit this season, including three in RMU’s loss to Akron, Jan. 2. Her total is the most by a Colonial since the 2001-02 season when current Colonial Valerie Jacobs finished with 11.

A True Leader - After a season of off guards playing at the point, RMU has three true point guards - and it shows. The Colonials are currently sixth in the NEC in assists per game (13.55) and freshman guard Jenna Eckleberry is tied for seventh (3.55).

A Spectacular Showing - Jenna Eckleberry finished with a game and career-high 17 points in RMU’s heartbreaking 55-54 loss to Akron, Jan. 2. The 5-0 guard was 5-of-7 from the field, including 3-of-4 from behind the three-point arc, and hit 4-of-6 from the charity stripe. She also grabbed four rebounds, dished out a game-high five assists and made one steal.
Making the Most of Her Minutes - Freshman guard Jenna Burkett played in all but two minutes against Duquesne, Nov. 23. The Altoona, Pa., native made the most of her minutes, sinking 7-of-16 from the field, including 6-of-12 from behind the three-point arc. Burkett finished the contest with a 23 points, grabbed five rebounds and added one block and one steal.

Finding Her Rhythm - Burkett found her rhythm in RMU’s 70-58 loss to Army, Dec. 28. The 5-9 guard tallied a game and career-high 33 points, 27 of which were from behind the three-point arc. Burkett’s nine three-pointers, seven of which she drained in the first half, set a new Christl Arena record and broke RMU’s single game record. The previous Colonial record was seven by Keisha Brown, hit in a 106-99 overtime victory against Fairleigh Dickinson Feb. 23, 2002.

In The Zone - Finishing with 33 points against Army, Burkett scored 20 straight in the first half. She hit six three-pointers and a jumper over a ten minute span before another Colonial scored.

In the NCAA Statistics - Jenna Burkett’s nine three-pointers against Army, Dec. 28 is second in the NCAA for most three-pointers made in a single-game. She is behind Joy Gallagher of Wagner who hit 11 threes against Boston University, Dec. 30.

In the NEC Statistics - Burkett is also tied for second in the Northeast Conference in three-point field goals made (32), behind Joy Gallagher of Wagner (38). She is also 12th in total points scored, accumulating 138, for an average of 12.5.

Contribution from the New Faces - The six newcomers on the 2003-04 squad have accounted for 374 out of RMU’s 625 points scored this season (59.8%).

Leading the Charge -
Jenna Burkett - 138 points
Brittany Warren - 93 points *
Jenna Eckleberry - 50 points
Arlene Mull - 47 points
Sarah Bradley - 31 points
DeAnna Chestnut - 15 points

* Has since transferred from RMU
