OPENING REMARKS: The Robert Morris University women’s basketball team, under the guidance of second-year head coach Sal Buscaglia, will close out a three-game road trip when they travel to Pittsburgh to take on the Panthers at the Peterson Events Center on Wednesday. The Colonials currently stand at 2-1, marking the first time that RMU has started out 2-1 since the 1991-92 campaign. The Colonials are coming off a 59-53 win over Marshall in the consolation game of the Binghamton University Time Warner Classic. Robert Morris will return to action at the Charles L. Sewall Center on Saturday, Dec. 4 when the Colonials host Quinnipiac for the 2004-05 Northeast Conference opener before hosting Longwood Tuesday, Dec. 7.
Head Coach Sal Buscaglia
Second Season

Sal Buscaglia enters his second season at the helm of the Robert Morris University women's basketball team and his 27th season as a head coach. With nine national tournament appearances and only two losing seasons, the Colonials, although finishing with a 3-24 overall record last season, had wins over the Northeast Conference regular season runner-up Sacred Heart as well as Central Connecticut State. It was the first time since the 1999-2000 season that RMU beat both of those teams.

Prior to Robert Morris, Buscaglia spent five seasons at Manhattan College (1998-2003). In just his second season at Manhattan, Buscaglia led the Lady Jaspers to a 17-win season, marking the fifth most victories in school history, and was recognized as the 24th most improved team in NCAA Division I. In five seasons at Manhattan, Buscaglia compiled a record of 79-65, including a 20-10 record and won the first league title in school history and made a NCAA tournament appearance in 2002-03.

Over his career, Buscaglia has won five conference titles at the Division I level and has averaged 18 victories per year. In his 13 years as a Division I head coach, Buscaglia has guided his teams to winning seasons in 11 of them. He also owns 13 Coach of the Year honors. A native of Buffalo, New York, Buscaglia is a 1976 graduate of Canisius with a Bachelor of Science in business and accounting and in 1989 earned a Master’s Degree in physical education, also from Canisius. In 1980, Buscaglia received a Master’s Degree in business education from the State University of New York College at Buffalo.

RMU COLONIALS
Derrick Harrison is in his second season as an assistant women’s basketball coach for the Colonials. Harrison, a native of Queens, N.Y., comes to the Colonials from Manhattan College, where he was an assistant coach for one season. Harrison’s responsibilities with the Jaspers included recruiting, tape exchange, travel, organizing summer basketball camps and working with the post players. He mainly deals with travel arrangements, budget and scheduling.

Before joining Manhattan, which won the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference championship and reached the NCAA tournament in 2002-03, Harrison was the head women’s basketball coach and sports information director at City College of New York from 1999 until 2002.

Harrison graduated with a bachelors degree in sociology from Potsdam State in 1994.

Toyelle Wilson is in her second season as an assistant coach at Robert Morris University. She primarily works with the development of the guards, assisting with recruiting, and coordinating the preseason and postseason conditioning regimen. Her responsibilities also include video scouting, film exchange coordinator and video highlights.

Wilson comes to the Colonials after closing out a four-year playing career at Manhattan College under current RMU head coach Sal Buscaglia. In 2002-03, Manhattan finished the season with a 20-10 overall record, including a 15-3 record in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference. The Jaspers won the MAAC tournament and earned a berth into the NCAA Division I Tournament.

Wilson graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in business administration from Manhattan College in 2003.

Charlie Buscaglia enters his second season as an assistant women’s basketball coach at Robert Morris, but his sixth year working under head coach Sal Buscaglia. Buscaglia works primarily on recruiting for Robert Morris.

Buscaglia comes to Robert Morris from Manhattan College, the 2003 Metro Atlantic Athletics Conference Champions and NCAA tournament participant, where he was an assistant from 1998 until 2003. While at Manhattan, Buscaglia focused mainly on recruiting.

Aside from recruiting, Buscaglia has helped run summer basketball camps and clinics at the University at Buffalo from 1994 until 1998 and was a camp coordinator at Manhattan during his tenure there.

Buscaglia graduated from Manhattan in 2003 with a Bachelor of Science degree in general studies.
Robert Morris took its first lead of the game, 17-16 with 8:45 remaining in the first half following a layup from Sugiery Monsac and a jumper from DeSheyna Perry. Marshall would answer with a 9-5 run to end the half and take a 25-22 lead into the intermission.

The Colonials would take the lead for good when Jenna Burkett came off the bench and hit back-to-back three-pointers to give RMU the lead with 12:28 remaining in the game. Burkett would hit another from behind the arc along with Tess Cooley and a jumper from Monsac would give RMU a 12 point lead with 2:58 left in the game. RMU would hold of a late 7-1 run by the Thundering Herd to capture their second-straight win over a MAC opponent.

Cooley led all scorers with 18 points, while Monsac tallied her third-straight double-double and finished with 16 points and 14 rebounds. For her efforts, Monsac was selected to the All-Tournament Team. Perry scored a career-high 14 points and grabbed nine rebounds, while dishing out five assists. Burkett rounded out four Colonials in double figures with 11 points, all in the second half.

Scouting the Panthers - Pittsburgh enters Wednesday's game with a 3-0 record and host the Colonials in their 2004-05 home opener. The Panthers have defeated North Carolina A&T, 86-7, before traveling to the UNC Greensboro Tournament and earning victories over South Carolina State, 73-45, and UNC Greensboro, 62-55. Pitt has four players averaging double figures. Senior guard Annie Kunich leads the team in scoring with 13.7 points per contest followed by 11.7 from Cheron Taylor, 11.3 from Katie Histed and 10.3 from Mercedes Walker. Walker leads the way with 9.7 boards per contest.

Panther Head Coach - Head Coach Agnus Berenato is in her second year as head coach of the Panthers. She owns a 289-284 record in 20 years of head coaching experience.

The Series: Pittsburgh leads the all-time series with Robert Morris 20-0.

Last Time Around - RMU dropped a 61-47 decision to cross-town rival Pittsburgh. Pittsburgh limited Robert Morris to 27.3 percent shooting from the floor in the first half (6-of-22) to gain a 26-19 lead at intermission. Sarah McDonald made a layup 25 seconds into the second half to cut the lead to 26-21, but the Panthers tightened up their defense and went on a 13-0 run to hold a 18-point advantage at 39-21. RMU’s Jenna Burkett drained a three at the 14:49 mark to cut the Colonials deficit to 15. The Panthers’ Latoya Kincaid hit two jumpers and Sheila Stuflet tied the jumper to push the lead to 47-26 with a little over 12 minutes to play in the game. Pittsburgh was able to keep RMU at bay for the final 10 minutes and took the game 61-47 victory. Robert Morris was led by Burkett who finished with a team-high 14 points and added two assists, one rebound and one steal. Annie Harris finished with 10 points, while McDonald grabbed a game and career-high 14 rebounds and added six points. Pittsburgh’s Stuflet had a game-high 16 points and brought down seven rebounds. Jessica Allen finished the game with 15 points and Kincaid added 12.

FROM DOWNTOWN: Sophomore guard Jenna Burkett returns this season as one of the top three-point shooters in the Northeast Conference. As a freshman, Burkett set the RMU single-game record for three-pointers made with nine and set the single-game record for three-pointers attempted with 10. Both records were set at Army (12/28/03). For the season, Burkett made at least three from behind the arc in 11 games.

REACHING A MILESTONE: Head Coach Sal Buscaglia enters his 27th season as a head coach and needs just 8 victories to reach 500 career victories this season. He currently boasts a 492-216 career coaching record in 27 years of coaching.

PUTTING IT ALL TOGETHER: The Colonials lost a total of 11 games in 2003-04 by 10 points or less. Seven of those games were at the hands of a NEC foe. Of the 11 games, RMU was leading at halftime in seven of those contests and were tied in two.

TRIPLE THREAT: Sophomores Jenna Burkett and Sarah Bradley, along with junior Amiee Harris combined to lead the Colonials in scoring on 19 occasions last season. Burkett led the team in eight games, Bradley in six and Harris in five.

THE JINX IS BROKEN: RMU won its season opener against Akron, 75-58, marking the first time the Colonials have won a season-opener since Nov. 23, 1991, when they defeated the Bonnies of St. Bonaventure, 66-64.

WELCOME ABOARD: The 2004-05 season marks the first group of recruits for Coach Buscaglia and his staff. RMU welcomes seven newcomers that bring an up-tempo style of play. There are four junior college transfers, including Sugiery Monsac, Tess Cooley, DeSheyna Perry and Le’Sheala Dawson that are joined by freshmen Tiffany Smith, Avonte Williams and Marlis Graves.

HITTING THE BOARDS: Freshman Marlis Graves is not afraid to crash the boards. The 5-3 guard grabbed four rebounds in the win over Akron, which was third on the team behind forwards Tess Cooley and Sugiery Monsac.

DOUBLE DOUBLE TIMES THREE: Junior forward Sugiery Monsac has recorded three-straight double-doubles in the Colonials first three games this season. Monsac finished with 20 points and 12 rebounds in game one versus Akron, tallied 23 points and 15 boards in game two against Brown and registered 16 points and pulled down 14 boards against Marshall.

SEEING THE COURT: Junior forward Sugiery Monsac finished just three assists shy of a triple double in the win over Akron (Nov. 24). Monsac finished with 20 points, 12 rebounds and seven assists. Four of her assists resulted in two points from fellow classmate Tess Cooley.

JUMPING RIGHT IN: It did not take long for the newcomers to the Colonials squad to make the transition from the junior college level to Division I. RMU’s top three leading scorers from the win over Akron each scored 20 or more points. Tess Cooley from Coffeyville C.C. tallied 22 points and 11 rebounds, Sugiery Monsac from Arizona Western J.C. finished with 20 points and 12 boards, while Le’Sheala Dawson from Saddleback J.C. recorded 21 points on 5-of-8 shooting from behind the arc.

A FIRST IN A LONG TIME: Junior forward Tess Cooley was selected as the Choice Hotels Northeast Conference Women’s Basketball Player of the Week following her performance in the win over Akron. This marks the first time that a Colonial has earned this honor since 2001.

LIGHTING IT UP: Junior guard Le’Sheala Dawson has recorded 34 points this season in three games, with 24 of those points from behind the arc.

AROUND THE LEAGUE: Junior forward/center Sugiery Monsac was selected as the Choice Hotels Northeast Conference Co-Women’s Basketball Player of the Week for the week of Nov. 29, 2004. Monsac recorded her second and third straight double-double of the season at the Binghamton Tournament Nov. 27 and 28. Monsac finished with 23 points and 15 rebounds against Brown and returned the next day to register 16 points and grab 14 boards in a 59-53 win over Marshall. Monsac shared the award with Beth Swink of St. Francis (Pa.).

IT DOES NOT MATTER WHEN YOU ENTER: Sophomore guard Jenna Burkett came off the bench in the second half of the win over Marshall to give the Colonials a late boost. Burkett entered the game and hit back-to-back three-pointers to give RMU the lead for good in a 59-53 win over Marshall. Burkett would add another three-pointer to her resume and two free throws to finish with 11 points rounding out four Colonials in double figures in the win.
