Head Coach Sal Buscaglia
Second Season

Sal Buscaglia enters his second season at the helm of the Robert Morris University women's basketball team and his 27th season as a head coach. With nine national tournament appearances and only two losing seasons, the Colonials, although finishing with a 3-24 overall record last season, had wins over the Northeast Conference regular season runner-up Sacred Heart as well as Central Connecticut State. It was the first time since the 1999-2000 season that RMU beat both of those teams.

Prior to Robert Morris, Buscaglia spent five seasons at Manhattan College (1998-2003). In just his second season at Manhattan, Buscaglia led the Lady Jaspers to a 17-win season, marking the fifth most victories in school history, and was recognized as the 24th most improved team in NCAA Division I. In five seasons at Manhattan, Buscaglia compiled a record of 79-65, including a 20-10 record and won the first league title in school history and made a NCAA tournament appearance in 2002-03.

Over his career, Buscaglia has won five conference titles at the Division I level and has averaged 18 victories per year. In his 13 years as a Division I head coach, Buscaglia has guided his teams to winning seasons in 11 of them. He also owns 13 Coach of the Year honors. A native of Buffalo, New York, Buscaglia is a 1976 graduate of Canisius with a Bachelor of Science Degree in business and accounting and in 1989 earned a Master’s Degree in physical education, also from Canisius. In 1980, Buscaglia received a Master’s Degree in business education from the State University of New York College at Buffalo.

Overall Coaching Record: 495-218 (27 seasons)
Derrick Harrison is in his second season as an assistant women’s basketball coach for the Colonials. Harrison, a native of Queens, N.Y., comes to the Colonials from Manhattan College, where he was an assistant coach for one season. Harrison’s responsibilities with the Jaspers included recruiting, tape exchange, travel, organizing summer basketball camps and working with the post players. He mainly deals with travel arrangements, budget and scheduling.

Before joining Manhattan, which won the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference championship and reached the NCAA tournament in 2002-03, Harrison was the head women’s basketball coach and sports information director at City College of New York from 1999 until 2002.

Harrison graduated with a bachelors degree in sociology from Potsdam State in 1994.

Toyelle Wilson is in her second season as an assistant coach at Robert Morris University. She primarily works with the development of the guards, assisting with recruiting, and coordinating the preseason and postseason conditioning regimen. Her responsibilities also include video scouting, film exchange coordinator and video highlights.

Wilson comes to the Colonials after closing out a four-year playing career at Manhattan College under current RMU head coach Sal Buscaglia. In 2002-03, Manhattan finished the season with a 20-10 overall record, including a 15-3 record in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference. The Jaspers won the MAAC tournament and earned a berth into the NCAA Division I Tournament.

Wilson graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in business administration from Manhattan College in 2003.

Charlie Buscaglia enters his second season as an assistant women’s basketball coach at Robert Morris, but his sixth year working under head coach Sal Buscaglia.

Buscaglia works primarily on recruiting for Robert Morris.

Buscaglia comes to Robert Morris from Manhattan College, the 2003 Metro Atlantic Athletics Conference Champions and NCAA tournament participant, where he was an assistant from 1998 until 2003. While at Manhattan, Buscaglia focused mainly on recruiting.

Aside from recruiting, Buscaglia has helped run summer basketball camps and clinics at the University at Buffalo from 1994 until 1998 and was a camp coordinator at Manhattan during his tenure there.

Buscaglia graduated from Manhattan in 2003 with a Bachelor of Science degree in general studies.
The Colonials regrouped in the second half and outscored the Dukes 27-14 to get back within five, 36-27. RMU opened the second half on an 8-4 run that featured four Colonials reaching the scoring column. Tess Cooley opened the half with a put back off a Jenna Burkett miss, followed by a steal and a lay up from DeSheyna Perry. Le'Shesla Dawson kept the RMU run going when she was fouled behind the arc and sank two of three shots at the charity stripe. With just four minutes elapsed off the clock, Sarah McDonald cut the Dukes lead to one, 33-32.

Duquesne's Rebecca Bonasso sank a three-pointer with 12:07 remaining in the game to give the Dukes its largest lead of the half, 36-43. The Colonials would pick up its defensive intensity and Robert Morris took its first lead of the game 47-45. The Dukes quickly answered with a lay up from Loui Hall and a three-pointer from Aiga Bautre, but RMU's Burkett would answer with back-to-back three-pointers and Cooley made one of two from the line to knot the game 54-54 for the fourth time in the half. The Dukes Nicole Sinclair answered with a quick lay up to give Duquesne a 56-54 lead, but RMU’s Sugieri Monsac took one dribble and stepped behind the arc and sank her only three-pointer of the game to put the Colonials on top 58-54. Monsac would add two insurance free throws to help seal the Colonials 60-56 victory.

Monsac lead all scorers with 24 points, followed by 10 points from Dawson. Cooley grabbed a team-high 10 boards to go along with seven points.

FROM DOWNTOWN: Sophomore guard Jenna Burkett returns this season as one of the top three-point shooters in the Northeast Conference. As a freshman, Burkett set the RMU single-game record for three-pointers made with nine and set the single-game record for three-pointers attempted with 20. Both records were set at Army (12/28/03). For the season, Burkett made at least three from behind the arc in 11 games.

REACHING A MILESTONE: Head Coach Sal Buscaglia is in his 27th season as a head coach and needs just five more victories to reach 500 career victories this season. He currently boasts a 495-218 career coaching record in 27 years of coaching.

PUTTING IT ALL TOGETHER: The Colonials lost a total of 11 games in 2003-04 by 10 points or less. Seven of those games were at the hands of a NEC foe. Of the 11 games, RMU was leading at halftime in seven of those contests and were tied in two.

TRIPLE THREAT: Sophomores Jenna Burkett and Sarah Bradley, along with junior Amie Harris combined to lead the Colonials in scoring on 19 occasions last season. Burkett led the team in eight games, Bradley in six and Harris in five.

THE JINX IS BROKEN: RMU won its season opener against Akron, 75-58, marking the first time the Colonials have won a season-opener since Nov. 23, 1991, when they defeated the Bonnies of St. Bonaventure, 66-64.

WELCOME ABOARD: The 2004-05 season marks the first group of recruits for Coach Buscaglia and his staff. RMU welcomes seven newcomers that bring an up-tempo style of play. There are four junior college transfers, including Sugier Monsac, Tess Cooley, DeSheyna Perry and Le’Sheala Dawson that are joined by freshmen Tiffany Smith, Avonte’ Williams and Marlis Graves.

HITTING THE BOARDS: Freshman Marlis Graves is not afraid to crash the boards. The 5-3 guard grabbed four rebounds in the win over Akron, which was third on the team behind forwards Tess Cooley and Sugier Monsac.

IT DOES NOT MATTER WHEN YOU ENTER: Sophomore guard Jenna Burkett came off the bench in the second half of the win over Marshall to give the Colonials a late boost. Burkett entered the game and hit back-to-back three-pointers to give RMU the lead for good in a 59-53 win over Marshall. Burkett would add another three-pointer to her resume and two free throws to finish with 11 points rounding out four Colonials in double figures in the win.

SEEING THE COURT: Junior forward Sugier Monsac finished just three assists shy of a triple double in the win over Akron (Nov. 24). Monsac finished with 20 points, 12 rebounds and seven assists. Four of her assists resulted in two points from fellow classmate Tess Cooley.

JUMPING RIGHT IN: It did not take long for the newcomers to the Colonials squad to make the transition from the junior college level to Division I. RMU’s top three leading scorers from the win over Akron each scored 20 or more points. Tess Cooley from Coffeyville C.C. tallied 22 points and 11 rebounds, Sugier Monsac from Arizona Western J.C. finished with 20 points and 12 boards, while Le’Sheala Dawson from Saddleback J.C. recorded 21 points on 5-of-8 shooting from behind the arc.

A FIRST IN A LONG TIME: Junior forward Tess Cooley was selected as the Choice Hotels Northeast Conference Women’s Basketball Player of the Week following her performance in the win over Akron. This marks the first time that a Colonial has earned this honor since 2001.

PROTECTING THE BALL: Robert Morris committed just seven turnovers in the Nov. 28th win over Marshall, which is ten under the Colonials average thus far for 2004-05.

LIGHTING IT UP: Sophomore guard Jenna Burkett has recorded 71 points this season in seven games, with 57 of those points from behind the arc.

DOUBLE DOUBLE TIMES FIVE: Junior forward Sugier Monsac has recorded five-straight double-doubles in the Colonials first five games this season. Monsac finished with 20 points and 12 rebounds in game one versus Akron, tallied 23 points and 15 boards in game two against Brown and registered 16 points and pulled down 14 boards against Marshall. Monsac recorded a career-high 26 points and grabbed 21 boards in the loss to Pittsburgh, followed by a career-high 22 boards and 21 points in the win over Quinnipiac.

EARLY VICTORS: RMU defeated Quinnipiac, 57-53 Dec. 4, marking the first time the Colonials defeated Fairleigh Dickinson, 69-60. Prior to the win, RMU owned a 4-13 record in conference openers.
AROUND THE LEAGUE: Junior forward/center Sugiey Monsac was selected as the Choice Hotels Northeast Conference Women's Basketball Player of the Week for the week of Dec. 6, 2004. Monsac recorded her fourth and fifth straight double-doubles of the season at Pittsburgh, Dec. 1 and at the Sewall Center against Quinnipiac, Dec. 4. Monsac finished with a career-high 26 points and 21 rebounds against Pittsburgh and returned Saturday to register 21 points and grab a career-high 22 boards in a 57-53 win over Quinnipiac. That was the second consecutive week that Monsac has earned the award and the third-straight week a RMU player has earned the honor.

SECOND CHANCE OPPORTUNITIES: Robert Morris takes every opportunity it is faced with to score. Currently, the Colonials lead their opponents on the offensive glass, 114-106. Leading the way on RMU’s side of the court is Sugiey Monsac who has grabbed 42 offensive boards in six games.

A NEED FOR THREE: The Colonials have tallied five or more three-pointers in every five of the Colonials eight games this season. RMU has made 40 from behind the arc for a .348 shooting percentage compared to 25 from their opponents who are shooting just .316 from long range.

THROUGHOUT THE NATION: Junior forward/center Sugiey Monsac currently ranks among the nations leaders in scoring and rebounding. As of Dec. 13, 2004, Monsac leads the nation in rebounding with 14.3 boards per game and is tied for eighth in scoring with 21.1 points per game. She is also the only player to record over 21 rebounds in a game this season. Monsac has accomplished this feat on two separate occasions thus far (21 vs. Pittsburgh, 12/01/04 and 22 vs. Quinnipiac, 12/04/04).

STANDING STRONG TILL THE END: In the Colonials game against Duquesne, RMU led for a total of 47 seconds in the entire game and held off the Dukes off for a 60-56 victory. RMU never led until there was 6:31 remaining in the game. The lead would stand for just 10 seconds before the Dukes regrouped and took the lead back. RMU did not falter, as the Colonials fought back and took the lead for good on a three-pointer from Sugiey Monsac with 37 second remaining in the game.

A FIRST IN FIVE TRIES: RMU’s 60-56 win over Duquesne marks the first time that the Colonials have defeated the Dukes in the last five meetings between the two schools. The last time the Colonials topped the Dukes was a 58-54 victory during the 1999-2000 season.
