OPENING REMARKS: The Robert Morris University women's basketball team, under the guidance of second-year head coach Sal Buscaglia, are in the third game of a four-game home stand Thursday with visiting St. Francis (N.Y.). The Colonials suffered just their second Northeast Conference loss last Saturday, Jan. 22 to Sacred Heart, 69-60. The Colonials will return to action on Saturday, Jan. 29 against Central Connecticut State. CCSU gave RMU their first loss in the conference in New Britain, Conn. Jan 13, 73-63.

QUICK STAT OF THE NIGHT: Robert Morris is coming off a four-day break from games when it comes to Thursday's matchup with St. Francis. The Colonials just finished their fifth game in ten days on Saturday versus Sacred Heart. During that stretch the Colonials went 3-2 with their two losses coming at the hands of NEC opponents.

THE SERIES VERSUS ST. FRANCIS: Robert Morris leads the overall series with St. Francis 23-13, but the Terriers have won the last three meetings between the two schools. Last season, St. Francis claimed 77-67 and 52-50 wins over the Colonials. RMU last topped St. Francis during the 2001-02 season, 73-59.

DEDICATING THE SEASON: Robert Morris suffered the loss of our athletic director. Dr. Susan Hofacre, Saturday Jan. 8, 2005 to cancer. In memory of Dr. Hofacre, the Colonials have dedicated their 2004-05 season in her memory. To honor Dr. Hofacre, every player on the team has wrote Dr. Hofacre's initials (SH) on their right shoe, along with tying an orange ribbon to their shoe. The orange ribbon represents the San Francisco Giants because Dr. Hofacre was an avid Giants fan.

Head Coach Sal Buscaglia
Second Season

Sal Buscaglia enters his second season at the helm of the Robert Morris University women’s basketball team and his 27th season as a head coach. With nine national tournament appearances and only two losing seasons, the Colonials, although finishing with a 3-24 overall record last season, had wins over the Northeast Conference regular season runner-up Sacred Heart as well as Central Connecticut State. It was the first time since the 1999-2000 season that RMU beat both of those teams.

Prior to Robert Morris, Buscaglia spent five seasons at Manhattan College (1998-2003). In just his second season at Manhattan, Buscaglia led the Lady Jaspers to a 17-win season, marking the fifth most victories in school history, and was recognized as the 24th most improved team in NCAA Division I. In five seasons at Manhattan, Buscaglia compiled a record of 79-65, including a 20-10 record and won the first league title in school history and made a NCAA tournament appearance in 2002-03.

Over his career, Buscaglia has won five conference titles at the Division I level and has averaged 18 victories per year. In his 13 years as a Division I head coach, Buscaglia has guided his teams to winning seasons in 11 of them. He also owns 13 Coach of the Year honors. A native of Buffalo, New York, Buscaglia is a 1976 graduate of Canisius with a Bachelor of Science Degree in business and accounting and in 1989 earned a Master’s Degree in physical education, also from Canisius. In 1980, Buscaglia received a Master’s Degree in business education from the State University of Buffalo.

Who: Sal Buscaglia
What: Fifth head coach in the 26-year history of RMU women’s basketball.
When Appointed: May 2, 2003
Year at Robert Morris: Second
Alma Mater / Year: Canisius / 1976

degrees:
Bachelor of Science in Business, Accounting - Canisius / 1976
Master in Business Education - State Univ. of New York College at Buffalo / 1980
Master’s of Physical Education - Canisius / 1989

Collegiate Coaching Experience:
Manhattan College - Head Coach, 1998-2003
University at Buffalo - Head Coach, 1990-98
Hilbert Junior College - Head Coach, 1977-90

Other Coaching Experience:
USA Basketball, Olympic Festival - Assistant Coach, 1992
USA Basketball, Olympic Festival - Trial Coach, 1989
Empire State Games, Women’s Basketball - Head Coach, Western Division
Derrick Harrison is in his second season as an assistant women’s basketball coach for the Colonials. Harrison, a native of Queens, N.Y. comes to the Colonials from Manhattan College, where he was an assistant coach for one season. Harrison’s responsibilities with the Jaspers included recruiting, tape exchange, travel, organizing summer basketball camps and working with the post players. He mainly deals with travel arrangements, budget and scheduling.

Before joining Manhattan, which won the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference championship and reached the NCAA tournament in 2002-03, Harrison was the head women’s basketball coach and sports information director at City College of New York from 1999 until 2002.

Harrison graduated with a bachelors degree in sociology from Potsdam State in 1994.

Toyelle Wilson is in her second season as an assistant coach at Robert Morris University. She primarily works with the development of the guards, assisting with recruiting, and coordinating the preseason and postseason conditioning regimen. Her responsibilities also include video scouting, film exchange coordinator and video highlights.

Wilson comes to the Colonials after closing out a four-year playing career at Manhattan College under current RMU head coach Sal Buscaglia. In 2002-03, Manhattan finished the season with a 20-10 overall record, including a 15-3 record in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference. The Jaspers won the MAAC tournament and earned a berth into the NCAA Division I Tournament.

Wilson graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in business administration from Manhattan College in 2003.

Charlie Buscaglia enters his second season as an assistant women’s basketball coach at Robert Morris, but his sixth year working under head coach Sal Buscaglia. Buscaglia works primarily on recruiting for Robert Morris.

Buscaglia comes to Robert Morris from Manhattan College, the 2003 Metro Atlantic Athletics Conference Champions and NCAA tournament participant, where he was an assistant from 1998 until 2003. While at Manhattan, Buscaglia focused mainly on recruiting.

Aside from recruiting, Buscaglia has helped run summer basketball camps and clinics at the University at Buffalo from 1994 until 1998 and was a camp coordinator at Manhattan during his tenure there.

Buscaglia graduated from Manhattan in 2003 with a Bachelor of Science degree in general studies.

Conference setback to visiting Sacred Heart Jan. 22.
Junior forward / center Sugiery Monsac scored four early points to give the Colonials a 4-2 lead at the 17:02 mark. Both teams would struggle to find the basket as 3:12 went off the clock before RMU’s DeSheyna Perry scored a jumper with 14:56 remaining in the half.

The Pioneers’ Amanda Pape and Colleen Duggan each responded with a lay up to knot the score at 6-6. The Colonials and Pioneers traded baskets to bring the score to 8-8 with 12:49 left to play until halftime. Sacred Heart would go on a 19-7 run to take a 12-point lead, 27-15 with 3:24 left in the half. The Colonials would end the half outscoring the Pioneers 7-3 to cut Sacred Heart’s lead to eight at the intermission, 30-22.

Sacred Heart scored four-straight points to open up the second half to increase their lead back to 12, 34-22. The Colonials answered with a 17-6 run to pull RMU within one, 40-39 with 10:46 remaining in the game. The run featured Monsac scoring eight points and Tess Cooley recorded six points, which included her only three-pointer of the evening.

Pape answered with two free throws that started a 21-10 run that pushed the Pioneers lead back to 12 points, 61-49, with 1:23 left in the game. RMU outscored Sacred Heart 11-8 over the final 1:10 of the game, but it was not enough as the Pioneers held on for the 69-60 NEC win.

Scouting the Terriers - St. Francis (N.Y.) enters Thursday's match up with a 4-11 overall record and a 1-5 record in the Northeast Conference. The Terriers are coming off a 66-53 setback at Monmouth on Monday, Jan. 24. Tiffany Hill led three Terriers in double figures with 14 points, while Kim Weir tallied 12 points and Kim Bennett finished with 11 points. Bennett led the way on the boards with a team-high six rebounds and Hill led the St. Francis defense with five steals. For the season, Hill leads the Terriers in scoring with 15.3 points per game and steals with 28. Justine Paxhia averages a team-high 6.8 rebounds and dishes out 5.1 assists per contest.

Terriers Head Coach - Head Coach Brenda Milano is in her second season at the helm of St. Francis and her second season overall. In her first season at St. Francis, Milano tallied an 8-19 record.

Last Time Around - St. Francis escaped with a 52-50 win at the Pope P.E. Center on Jan 31, 2004. It marked the second straight game that RMU lost by three points or less. The first half featured 11 lead changes and eight ties. Sarah Bradley and Jenna Burkett combined for 22 points and eight rebounds in the first half. St. Francis opened the second half strong and took a seven point lead with 8:24 remaining in the game. Amiee Harris scored six of the next 11 points for RMU, but it was not enough as two Terriers made a free throw apiece in the last 43 seconds. Harris went to the line with one second remaining but could not connect on two attempts. Bradley led the way with 19 points and five rebounds followed by 14 points from Burkett to pace the Colonials. Kim Wier led the Terriers with 13 points, while Justine Paxhia had six rebounds in the win.
PUTTING IT ALL TOGETHER: The Colonials lost a total of 11 games in 2003-04 by 10 points or less. Seven of those games were at the hands of a NEC foe. Of the 11 games, RMU was leading at halftime in seven of those contests and were tied in two.

THE JINX IS BROKEN: RMU won its season opener against Akron, 75-58, marking the first time the Colonials have won a season-opener since Nov. 23, 1991, when they defeated the Bonnies of St. Bonaventure, 66-64.

WELCOME ABOARD: The 2004-05 season marks the first group of recruits for Coach Buscaglia and his staff. RMU welcomes seven newcomers that bring an up-tempo style of play. There are four junior college transfers, including Sugiery Monsac, Tess Cooley, DeSheyna Perry and Le’Sheala Dawson that are joined by freshmen Tiffany Smith, Avonte’ Williams and Marlis Graves.

HITTING THE BOARDS: Freshman Marlis Graves is not afraid to crash the boards. The 5-3 guard grabbed four rebounds in the win over Akron, which was third on the team behind forwards Tess Cooley and Sugiery Monsac.

IT DOES NOT MATTER WHEN YOU ENTER: Sophomore guard Jenna Burkett came off the bench in the second half of the win over Marshall to give the Colonials a late boost. Burkett entered the game and hit back-to-back three-pointers to give RMU the lead for good in a 59-53 win over Marshall. Burkett would add another three-pointer to her resume and two free throws to finish with 11 points rounding out four Colonials in double figures in the win.

SEEING THE COURT: Junior forward Sugiery Monsac finished just three assists shy of a triple double in the win over Akron (Nov. 24). Monsac finished with 20 points, 12 rebounds and seven assists. Four of her assists resulted in two points from fellow classmate Tess Cooley.

JUMPING RIGHT IN: It did not take long for the newcomers to the Colonials squad to make the transition from the junior college level to Division I. RMU’s top three leading scorers from the win over Akron each scored 20 or more points. Tess Cooley from Coffeyville C.C. tallied 22 points and 11 rebounds, Sugiery Monsac from Arizona Western J.C. finished with 20 points and 12 boards, while Le’Sheala Dawson from Saddleback J.C. recorded 21 points on 5-of-8 shooting from behind the arc.

A FIRST IN A LONG TIME: Junior forward Tess Cooley was selected as the Choice Hotels Northeast Conference Women’s Basketball Player of the Week following her performance in the win over Akron. This marks the first time that a Colonial has earned this honor since 2001.

PROTECTING THE BALL: Robert Morris committed just seven turnovers in the Nov. 28th win over Marshall, which is ten under the Colonials average thus far for 2004-05.

EARLY VICTORS: RMU defeated Quinnipiac, 57-53 Dec. 4, marking the first time the Colonials have won a NEC season opener since the 1995-96 season when they defeated Fairleigh Dickinson, 69-60. Prior to the win, RMU owned a 4-13 record in conference openers.

STANDING STRONG TILL THE END: In the Colonials game against Duquesne, RMU led for a total of 47 seconds in the entire game and held off the Dukes off for a 60-56 victory. RMU never led until there was 6:31 remaining in the game. The lead would stand for just 10 seconds before the Dukes regrouped and took the lead back. RMU did not falter, as the Colonials fought back and took the lead for good on a three-pointer from Sugiery Monsac with 37 second remaining in the game.

AROUND THE LEAGUE: Junior forward/center Sugiery Monsac was selected as the Choice Hotels Northeast Conference Women’s Basketball Player of the Week for the week of Dec. 20, 2004. Monsac recorded 24 points, five rebounds, three steals and two assists in a 66-54 win over Duquesne. This is Monsac’s third Player of the Week award this season in just five weeks of action.

STANDING TALL IN THE MAC: The Colonials rounded out its non-conference play against Mid-American Conference foes with an 2-1 record. RMU defeated Akron, 75-58 and Marshall, 59-55 before suffering its only loss in the MAC at the hands of Bowling Green, 66-51.

SETTING THE STAGE FOR THE NEC: RMU rounded out its 2004-05 non-conference schedule with a 5-4 mark, which marks the most non-conference wins in a single-season by a Colonial squad since Robert Morris recorded five non-conference wins in the 1987-88 season.

PERRY FOR THREE: Junior guard DeSheyna Perry accounted for five of the Colonials eight three-point shots in RMU’s 66-51 loss to Bowling Green. Perry shot 5-for-8 from behind the arc on her way to tying her career-high of 21 points, which she set against Towson, Dec. 10.
A SEASON OF FIRSTS

The 2003-05 season is a season of first for the Colonials. RMU has won a total of 10 games in the last four years and this season alone so far RMU has tallied 11 wins on the year. Below is a list of the the Colonials wins, along with the last time Robert Morris was victorious over each respective school.

STEPPING UP THE DEFENSIVE INTENSITY: The Colonials picked up its defensive intensity in its 55-44 win over Army Dec. 28. RMU forced the Black Knights into 30 turnovers, with the Colonials being credited with 20 steals in the win (10 in each half). Sugiery Monsac and DeSheyna Perry each pocketed six steals apiece.

CHASING THE RECORD BOOK: Guard Jenna Burkett needs just 15 more three-pointers to break into the Top-Five list for career made three-pointers. Burkett is just a sophomore, but has shown time and time again that she is one of the top three-point shooters in the conference. Burkett currently has tallied 86 made three's in her short career.

TAKE CARE OF THE BALL: In RMU’s 73-63 setback to Central Connecticut State, Jan. 15, the Colonials committed 20 turnovers with 15 of those turnovers being committed in the first half alone. Of the 15 first half turnovers, nine came in the first 8:08 of the game. Entering the CCSU game, RMU was averaging 15 turnovers in a game.

TOUGH ‘D’: Junior guard DeSheyna Perry tied her career-high of six steals in the loss to CCSU. As a team, the Colonials tallied 12 steals, with half of them coming courtesy of Perry and four from Tess Cooley.

BEHIND THE ARC: In the Colonials 63-62 win over Wagner and a 73-63 loss to CCSU, RMU shot its second and third lowest shooting percentage from long range on the season. In the Wagner game, the Colonials shot 4-of-19 (.211) and in the loss to CCSU, RMU shot 3-of-16 (.188) from behind the arc. The three three-pointers against the Blue Devils was the least amount of three-pointers that the Colonials have made in a single-game this season.

IN THE CLUTCH: RMU shot 10-for-12 from the charity stripe in the last five minutes of the Colonials 67-63 win over St. Francis (Pa.) Jan. 18. DeSheyna Perry was a perfect 6-of-6 during that span.

TAKING COMMAND OF THE BLACKBIRDS: RMU topped Long Island, 66-62 Jan. 8 to increase its series lead over LIU to 24-14. The significance of the win is that even though the Colonials own a commanding series lead, the win on Jan. 8 was the first win by RMU in the last seven meetings. The Colonials have not beaten the Blackbirds since the 1999-2000 season when they came away with a 71-69 win.

GETTING A HAND UP: The Colonial defense knew the importance of getting a hand in the face of the Long Island shooters in their game on Jan. 8. LIU entered the game shooting 40 percent from behind the arc, but RMU limited the Blackbirds to shooting just 14 percent (1-of-7) in the Colonials 66-62 win.

A NEED FOR THREE: The Colonials have tallied five or more three-pointers in nine of the Colonials 17 games this season. RMU has made 88 from behind the arc for a .302 shooting percentage compared to 60 from their opponents who are shooting just .288 from long range.

GETTING EVERYONE INVOLVED: Through the first six games of the season, the Colonials averaged 12.2 assists per outing. Over games seven, eight and nine the Colonials dropped to 7.7 assists per game. In that span, RMU stood at 1-2 before stepping up in game 10 and finished with 12 assists. The Colonials have averaged double-digit assists in every game they have won this season, despite its win over Duquesne when RMU finished with just five assists.

RINGING IN THE NEW YEAR: Junior guard DeSheyna Perry has found her own shooting streak heading into the new year. Through the first six games of the season, Perry averaged 6.7 points per contest, but since pouring in a career-high 21 points at Towson, Dec. 10, Perry is averaging 14.0 points per contest through the last eight games.

SECOND CHANCE OPPORTUNITIES: Robert Morris takes every opportunity it is faced with to score. Currently, the Colonials lead their opponents on the offensive glass, 245-211. Leading the way on RMU’s side of the court is Sugery Monsac who has grabbed 77 offensive boards.

REACHING A MILESTONE: Head Coach Sal Buscaglia is in his 27th season as a head coach recorded his 500th career head coaching victory when the Colonials topped host St. Francis (Pa.) Jan. 18, 67-63. He currently boasts a 501-221 career coaching record in 27 years of coaching.

THIS IS MY HOUSE: Senior Sarah McDonald grabbed a team-high 10 rebounds in the Colonials win over Wagner, Jan. 20, with six of her rebounds coming from the offensive side of the court.
DOUBLE THE TROUBLE: Junior forward / center Sugier Monsc has made an immediate impact in just her first season as a Colonial. Monsac has recorded a double-double in 12 of RMU’s 17 games.

BREAKING FREE: Through the first three games of the season, junior forward Tess Cooley recorded 44 points for a 14.7 average, but an early slump saw Cooley record just 23 points over games four through 10. Cooley found her way out of the early slump just in time for NEC action. Cooley came off the bench Jan. 3 in the Mount St. Mary’s game to record 16 points, two rebounds, two blocks and one assist. The Mount game was the first game that Cooley has recorded double digits in the scoring column since the third game of the season. Cooley followed up her Mount performance with her second double-double of the season when she finished with 14 points and 11 rebounds at Long Island. Cooley tallied double-double number three against Wagner when she finished with 21 points and a career-high 13 rebounds. Since Jan. 3, Cooley has been averaging 14.4 points per game and 9.0 rebounds per game.

CONFERENCE PLAY: Through eight NEC games, RMU has three players averaging double figures in league games alone. Sugier Monsc, DeSheyna Perry and Tess Cooley have accounted for 369 of the Colonials 509 points scored against conference foes. Individually broke down, Monsac averages 19.9, Cooley averages 13.3 and Perry averages 13.0.

THE JUNIORS’ GLASS SHOW IN THE NEC: RMU’s junior class knows how to take care of the glass. Colonial junior’s Sugier Monsc, Tess Cooley, DeSheyna Perry, Le’Sheala Dawson and Amie Harris account for 240 of RMU’s 306 rebounds versus conference opponents through seven games. Monsac leads the way averaging 12.8 boards followed by Cooley (8.3), Perry (3.9), Harris (2.6) and Dawson (2.5).

THROUGHOUT THE NATION: Junior forward /center Sugier Monsc currently ranks among the nations leaders in scoring and rebounding. As of Jan. 24, 2005, Monsac is fourth in the nation in rebounding with 11.8 boards per game and is tied for 16th in scoring with 20.0 points per game. She is also one of two players to record over 21 rebounds in a game this season. Monsac has accomplished this feat on two separate occasions thus far (21 vs. Pittsburgh, 12/01/04 and 22 vs. Quinnipiac, 12/04/04).

TAKING THE NEC BY STORM: Robert Morris is among the top teams of the Northeast Conference with a 6-2 record, which is a spot that the Colonials have not seen in a while. The Colonials have finished last in the league standings in each of the last four seasons and have not played in the conference tournament since the 1999-2000, when RMU finished eighth in the league. The last time that RMU has broken into the top-five in the conference is when the Colonials finished fourth in the regular season standings during the 1990-91 season, which saw RMU go on to claim their second NEC championship.

LOGGING SOME COURT TIME: Three Colonials are averaging over 30 minutes of playing time per game this season. Junior Sugier Monsc leads the way with 36.6 minutes per game, followed by classmates DeSheyna Perry with 33.4 minutes per game and Le’Sheala Dawson with 30.7 minutes per outing. Just behind Dawson is the rest of the junior class on the team, which includes Tess Cooley with 28.5 minutes of action and Amie Harris with 25.6 minutes per contest. Monsac has played all 40 minutes on five occasions and Dawson in one game.

REST AND RELAXATION: The Colonials Jan. 22 match up with Sacred Heart concluded a stretch of five games in 10 days for Robert Morris. Over that span, RMU finished 3-2, with their two losses coming by 10 points or less.

2005-06 COLONIAL ADDITIONS: Robert Morris head coach Sal Buscaglia announced the signing of two student-athletes to National Letters of Intent during the early signing period. Guards Kendra Williams (Bronx, N.Y. / Mount Saint Ursula) and Crystal Ahmed (Bronx, N.Y. / Lehman) have each signed letters with RMU. Williams was a two-time First-Team All-Bronx selection and was selected to the Best Of Catholic High School Athletic Association team and the Wheelchair Classic All-Star team. Ahmed will join RMU as the No. 1 rated guard by New York City’s School Sports Magazine and is rated in the top 250 in the country for all positions by the adidas All-Star Girls Report.
