Best Western Roundball Classic @ South Florida with UMBC and Loyola (Ill.)

On the Internet (live & archived) at: www.sports.yahoo.com (Adam Gusky, play-by-play)

Opening Remarks:

Robert Morris University improved to 2-0 with a 66-57 win over Loyola (Ill.) in the opening round of the Best Western Roundball Classic on Saturday. The last time that the Colonials opened a season 2-0 was during the 1988-89 campaign. Heading into Sunday's contest Robert Morris will look to improve its record to 3-0 for just the second time in the program's 30-year history. The Colonials opened the 1980-81 season with four-straight wins. The Colonials also improved to 2-0 versus Horizon League opponents with the victory. For the second-straight game Natasha Summerville recorded over 20 points to lead Robert Morris. Summerville tallied 21 points, while Psyche Butler recorded 19 points and nine rebounds in her first game in a Colonial uniform. The Colonials conclude three-straight games on the road at West Virginia Nov. 30 before heading back to the Charles L. Sewall Center for a three-game home stand beginning with Norfolk State Dec. 4 beginning at 1:00 p.m.

Quick Stat Of The Night:

Psyche Butler made the most out of her first collegiate start against Loyola (Ill.). Butler tallied 19 points and nine boards in 38 minutes of action for the Colonials. Butler teamed with Natasha Summerville to give the Colonials an inside-outside combination. Aside from a three-pointer, Butler tallied all of her points within 10 feet of the basket, while Summerville mixed things up a bit to score on the drive and also on a 10-12 foot jump shot. Summerville has tallied 21 or 23 points respectively in the first two contests of the season to lead the team in scoring with 22.0 points per outing.

The Series:

Robert Morris and South Florida will meet for the first time on Sunday. Of the three other teams in the Best Western Roundball Classic, the Colonials have only met UMBC prior to this weekend. Robert Morris head coach Sal Bucaglia has never faced Loyola (Ill.) in his 28 years as a head coach, but has played UMBC twice and South Florida once. Bucaglia is 2-0 versus UMBC and 0-1 against USF.

Sal Buscaglia
Third Season - Canisius '76
2005 Brenda Reilly Coach of the Year

'Coach Sal" as he is respectfully called is entering his third season at the helm and has turned the Colonials into not only a Northeast Conference contender, but a nationally competitive program in his short time at Robert Morris.

With nine national tournament appearances and only two losing seasons, the Colonials, although finishing with a 3-24 overall record in his first season, finished 20-10 last season with his first recruiting class, tying for third in the nation in largest turnarounds in one season and marked just the third time that the program has tallied a 20-win season. Along the way, Buscaglia tallied his 500th career head coaching victory and currently boosts an overall coaching record of 510-225.

Buscaglia guided the Colonials to the conference championship game for the first time since 1991. Along the way, the Colonials posted wins over Mid-American teams Akron and Marshall, along with Atlantic 10 member and cross town rival Duquesne. In addition, Robert Morris beat St. Francis (Pa.), Mount St. Mary's, and Monmouth. Prior to his arrival the team had 16, 15, and 13 game losing streaks, respectively, versus those teams.

Before Robert Morris, Buscaglia spent five seasons at Manhattan College (1998-2003). In just his second season at Manhattan, Buscaglia led the Lady Jaspers to a 17-win season, marking the fifth most victories in school history, and was recognized as the 24th most improved team in NCAA Division I. In five seasons at Manhattan, Buscaglia compiled a record of 79-65, including a 20-24 win season, and NCAA tournament appearance in 2002-03.

Over his career, Buscaglia has won five conference titles at Manhattan College - Head Coach, 1998-2003 and has guided his teams to the Division I level and has averaged 18 victories per year. In his 13 years as a Division I head coach, Buscaglia has guided his teams to winning seasons in 11 of them. He also owns 14 Coach of the Year honors.

Charlie Buscaglia
First Assistant Coach - Recruiting Coordinator
Third Season - Manhattan ‘03

Charlie Buscaglia enters his third season as an assistant women’s basketball coach at Robert Morris, but his seventh year working under head coach Sal Buscaglia. Buscaglia is involved in all aspects of the program with special emphasis on recruiting. In addition to recruiting he works primarily with the development of the perimeter players, practice planning, game strategy, and oversees the purchasing of uniforms and equipment.

Buscaglia came to Robert Morris from Manhattan College, the 2003 Metro Atlantic Athletics Conference Champions and NCAA tournament participant, where he was an assistant from 1998 until 2003. While at Manhattan, Buscaglia focused mainly on recruiting. Buscaglia believes that recruiting is the life line of the success of Robert Morris basketball. He continues to have strong ties throughout the entire country, along with premier junior college programs.

Aside from recruiting, Buscaglia has helped run summer basketball camps and clinics at the University at Buffalo from 1994 until 1998 and was a camp coordinator at Manhattan during his tenure there.

Toyelle Wilson
Assistant Coach
Third Season - Manhattan ‘03

Toyelle Wilson enters her third season as an assistant coach for the Lady Colonials. She is primarily responsible with the skill development of the guards, assisting the recruiting coordinator with campus visits, and coordinating the preseason and postseason conditioning regimen. Additional responsibilities include opponent scouting, film exchange, assisting the head coach with game preparation, game strategy, and practice planning, and coordinating the "Coach Sal’s Girls’ Basketball Camps.”

Head coach Sal Buscaglia offered Wilson her first career coaching job after closing out a four year playing career under him at Manhattan College. As a freshman she started 18 of 29 games for the Lady Jaspers. She averaged 5.6 points and 2.4 rebounds per game during the 1999-2000 campaign.

In 2002-03, she helped Manhattan finish the season with a 20-10 overall record, including a 15-3 record in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference. The Jaspers won the MAAC tournament and earned a berth into the NCAA Division I Tournament. Wilson, a team captain, was named Defensive Player of the Year for Manhattan.

Derrick Harrison
Assistant Coach
Third Season - Potsdam ‘94

Derrick Harrison is in his third season as an assistant women’s basketball coach for the Colonials. On the court, Harrison assists head coach Sal Buscaglia with the development of the post players and his off the court responsibilities include team travel, budget management and scheduling for the Colonials.

Harrison came to the Colonials from Manhattan College, where he was an assistant coach for one season. Harrison’s responsibilities with the Jaspers included recruiting, tape exchange, travel, organizing summer basketball camps and working with the post players.

Before joining Manhattan, which won the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference championship and reached the NCAA tournament in 2002-03, Harrison was the head women’s basketball coach and sports information director at City College of New York from 1999 until 2002. When named coach at CCNY, he inherited a team that had a 10-40 record in the previous two seasons. In his three seasons at CCNY, Harrison owned an overall record of 36-42, including a 24-18 mark in the CUNY Athletic Conference.

Prior to his hiring at CCNY, Harrison was an assistant varsity coach and head junior varsity coach at Hunter College in New York City. In his two years at Hunter, the Hawks won back-to-back conference championships (1997-98, 1998-99) and reached the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1998-99.

Scouting the Bulls: South Florida enters Sunday's contest with a 4-0 record following a 66-56 victory over UMBC in the opening round of the Best Western Roundball Classic. Jessica Dickson, the Big East's leading scorer, led the way with 23.8 points and 7.8 rebounds per game. Miller ranks second on the team with 15.3 points per game, while Parsons tallies 10.5 points and 7.8 boards per outing.

South Florida Head Coach: In his sixth season at the helm of the Bulls is Jose Fernandez (Florida International University '92). Fernandez owns an overall record of 63-83 (.431) at South Florida. He helped USF advance to its second consecutive post-season tournament appearance last season, taking part in the Women's National Invitation Tournament. Fernandez was named head coach on December 14, 2000 after originally being hired as an assistant coach in the spring of 2000. Prior to USF, Fernandez spent two seasons as an assistant coach at Division II Barry University from 2000-2002. Fernandez was an assistant coach at Division II Barry University from 2000-2002 and a double-double with 11 points and 10 boards. For the season, Dickson leads the team with 18 rebounds coming on the offensive end of the glass. The Robert Morris outscored the Ramblers, 17-7 to earn their second-straight win. For the game, Robert Morris shot .373 and Loyola (Ill.) shot .468. Each team made 22 three-pointers while the Ramblers hit just one. RMU held a 34-33 rebounding advantage with 18 rebounds coming on the offensive end of the glass. The Robert Morris bench outscored Loyola (Ill.) 33-8 and RMU tallied 18 second chance points in the win.

Leading Scorers: Summerville (21), Butler (19), Burkett (10)
Leading Rebounders: Butler (9), Cooley (6), Summerville (6)
Assists: Ahmed (4), Butler (3), Alston (2)
Floor General: In just her first collegiate game and start against Youngstown State, freshman point guard Crystal Ahmed proved that she can play at the next level. In 26 minutes of action, the 5-6 guard dished out a team-high four assists and finished second on the team with seven rebounds, when she is the shortest Colonial on the roster. Ahmed also tallied four points and a steal. It was Ahmed’s eyes that found Natasha Summerville on the baseline to sink a jumper at the buzzer to give RMU a two-point lead at halftime and her eyes also found Jenna Burkett behind the arc with under a minute left in the game to give RMU a seven-point cushion on the way to the 68-60 victory.

RMU’s Princess: Junior guard Princess Asia Alston was a princess for RMU in its 68-60 season-opening win over Youngstown State. Alston sank a three-pointer from the top of the key with 4:34 to go in the game to give Robert Morris the lead for good. It was Alston’s second three of the game on her way to scoring 10 points in her Colonial debut.

Third Years The Charm: Freshman center Jessica Ayilola is playing just her third season of basketball ever. At 6-4 she is the tallest Colonial on the squad and earned the starting nod at center against Youngstown State. She tallied eight points and three boards in her debut. YSU held an eight-point lead when Ayilola scored five of the Colonials next 10 points in a 10-1 run that gave RMU the lead for good.

Topping One Milestone And On To The Next: Head Coach Sal Buscaglia is a veteran head coach of 28 seasons and boosts an overall coaching record of 511-225. He recorded his 500th career head coaching victory on Jan. 18, 2005, 67-63. During the 2005-06 season, Buscaglia will be looking for his 250th Division I head coaching victory. Currently he owns a 241-159 record versus DI opponents.

Scoring Machine: The Colonials return 94 percent of its scoring from a season-ago, including its top-six scorers. The seven returnees accounted for 1,769 points out of the 1,882 that was scored. Leading the way is Sugeiry Monsac with a single season record of 602, followed by DeSheyna Perry (347), Tess Cooley (312), LeShea Dawson (236) Amie Harris (133), Jenna Burkett (113) and Arlene Mull (26).

Newest Veterans: Robert Morris has added depth and experience to its 2005-06 roster. Three junior college transfers join the Colonial contingent this season which includes Natasha Summerville from Frank Phillips Community College, Princess Asia Alston from Butler Community College, and Psycho Butler from New Mexico Junior College. Summerville is an instant scorer that averaged 16.2 points at Frank Phillips and helped lead them to a No. 6 ranking in points per game (80.4) in the National Junior College Athletic Association in 2005. Alston will add depth to the Colonials perimeter play after tallying 14.2 points, 5.3 rebounds, 3.2 assists, and 2.71 steals per game at Butler. Butler is a junior academically, but will have three years of v with the Colonials after playing just one season at New Mexico J.C. Butler is an athletic guard that can score from the inside or the outside. She joins RMU after averaging 17.4 points and 9.0 boards per game in junior college.

Fresh Talent: The class of 2009 brings a combination of quickness and height to RMU this season. Crystal Ahmed is a lightning quickpoint guard that was rated as the No. 1 guard by the New York City’s School Sports Magazine. Another freshman guard on the Colonial roster is Kendra Williams. Williams drives to the basket strong and was a two-time All-Bronx selection. The tallest player on the 2005-06 roster is 6-4 freshman center Jessica Ayilola. She has played basketball for just two seasons prior to coming to Robert Morris but has learned the game quickly. She averaged 14.0 points and 14.0 rebounds in her senior campaign at Boys and Girls School in Brooklyn, New York.

O Captain My Captain: Based on a vote by the entire team, the 2005-06 Colonials will be under the guidance of excellent leaders in seniors DeSheyna Perry, Tess Cooley, and Amie Harris. It is the second-straight season that Perry and Harris have earned this honor, while it marks the first season for Cooley.

All-America Candidate: The sky is the limit for senior forward/center Sugeiry Monsac. In her first season in a Colonial uniform in 2004-05 she led Robert Morris in scoring (20.1 ppg), rebounding (11.6 rpg), steals (93), and assists (88). In 30 games, she recorded a Northeast Conference high 21 double-doubles, including two 20-point, 20-rebound performances. She became the first men’s or women’s player at RMU to record over 600 points in a season as she tallied 602. Monsac rounded out the year ranking fifth in the nation in rebounding with 11.6 boards per game and 11th in scoring with 20.1 points per game along with ranking 19th in steals with 3.1 steals per game. She is also one of nine players to record over 21 rebounds in a game this season and 11th in scoring with 20.1 points per game along with ranking 19th in steals with 3.1 steals per game and was the only one to do it more than once. Within the NEC she led the league in rebounding, defensive rebounds, offensive rebounds, and steals while standing second in scoring. Monsac was honored a league-leading five times as the Choice Hotels Player of the Week and at the conclusion of the season was selected as the Northeast Conference Player of the Year, making her the first RMU women’s basketball player to earn this honor.

Multimedia: Lady Colonial Basketball radio broadcasts can be heard again this season at www.sports.yahoo.com. For the second year in a row, Adam Gusky will be calling the action through Choice Hotels. Lady Colonial Basketball radio broadcasts can be heard again this season at www.sports.yahoo.com or visit the site later as all games are archived for your listening convenience. "The Sal Buscaglia Show" is heard before and after the game and on the public address in the Sewall Center after home games. Select home and away games are telecast live and select home games are seen tape delayed on student-run RMU-TV.

2005 NEC Coaches Poll
According to a poll of league head coaches, Robert Morris was picked to win the Northeast Conference in 2005-06, marking the first time a RMU men’s or women’s team was picked first. RMU received six first place votes out of 10 and coaches cannot vote for their own team. Sacred Heart was picked second with four votes, Monmouth third and St. Francis (Pa.) was selected fourth, receiving only one vote. Sugeiry Monsac was selected to the preseason All-Conference team after averaging 20.1 points and 11.6 rebounds in 2004-05. A look at the 2005 NEC preseason coaches poll:

- Team (First-place votes)
  - 1. Robert Morris (6)
  - 2. Sacred Heart (4)
  - 3. Monmouth
  - 4. St. Francis (Pa.) (1)
  - 5. Quinnipiac
  - 6. Mount St. Mary’s
  - 7. Central Connecticut State
  - 8. St. Francis (N.Y.)
  - 9. Long Island

Robert Morris’ Championship Run: In the 2005 Northeast Conference Tournament, Robert Morris topped No. 6 Central Connecticut State, 72-39, setting a mark for fewest points allowed in a NEC Tournament game during the quarterfinal round before traveling to No. 2 Sacred Heart in a semifinal match up. The Colonials topped the Pioneers 68-62 in overtime to earn their first trip to the championship game since 1991. The win over the Pioneers was just the third time that the Colonials have topped Sacred Heart since the Colonials joined the league in 1999. For the first time in NEC basketball history, men or women, the two Pennsylvania schools, St. Francis (Pa.) and Robert Morris met for a NEC Basketball Championship. It was the fourth trip for RMU to the final round of the NEC Tournament, with two championships under their belt (1988 and 1991). St. Francis (Pa.) claimed the NEC title with a 65-50 victory.

Setting The Records Straight: The 2004-05 edition of Robert Morris women’s basketball set a new single season record for made three-pointers with 166, topping the old record of 161 that was set during the 1999-2000 season. Individually, Sugery Monasc set new career highs in points (602) and free throw attempts (225) and joined fellow teammates, Tess Cooley, Le’Sheala Dawson, Amie Harris, Jenna Burkett and Sarah McDonald in tying the RMU single season record for games played with 30 games played apiece.

A Lot Can Happen In A Year: Head coach Sal Buscaglia and his staff turned Robert Morris into a contender in the Northeast Conference and in the NCAA. The Colonials finished 20-10 overall in 2004-05, which was a 16 game turnaround from a season ago. The NCAA record for the best turn around in a year is 17 games which was done by Valparaiso in 2002. The Colonials tied third place UNC Asheville who finished with a 16 game turnaround in 2004. Santa Clara is second at 16.5 games in 1991.

Postseason Honors: Junior forward / center Sugeiry Monsac was selected as the 2004-05 NEC Player of the Year, while second-year head coach Sal Buscaglia was tabbed the Brenda Reilly Coach of the Year and DeSheyna Perry garnered second-team accolades. This is the first time in the programs history anyone has earned a major award.

There Is No Place Like Home: Of the Colonials 20 wins a season ago, 12 came within the confines of the Charles L. Sewall Center. Since the opening of the Sewall Center during the 1985-86 season, the women's basketball team has compiled a record of 116-135 for a .462 winning percentage. The 12 wins a season ago were the most-ever and the .800 winning percentage is first on the list also. The Colonials will play 12 home contests this season which includes nine league games and three non-conference tilts.

Conference Play: At the conclusion of the 2004-05 NEC schedule for RMU, the Colonials had three players that averaged double figures in league games alone. Sugeiry Monsac, DeSheyna Perry and Tess Cooley accounted for 779 of the Colonials 1,160 points scored against conference foes. Individually broke down, Monsac averaged 20.2, Cooley averaged 11.9 and Perry averaged 11.8.

Glass Show: RMU's Sugeiry Monsac, Tess Cooley, DeSheyna Perry, Le'Sheala Dawson and Amie Harris accounted for 500 of RMU's 661 rebounds versus conference opponents during the 2004-05 regular season. Monsac led the way averaging 12.1 boards followed by Cooley (6.8), Perry (3.7), Harris (2.7) and Dawson (2.7).

RMU Coaching Records

Director of Intercollegiate Athletics Craig Coleman, M.D., announced Nov. 15, 2005 that Robert Morris University has signed Sal Buscaglia to a contract extension through May of 2010. Buscaglia is the fifth coach in the 30-year history of the program. He now has five years remaining on his contract.

The Streaks Are Over

The 2004-05 season was a season of firsts for the Colonials. RMU won a total of 10 games in the last four years and in 2004-05 alone, RMU tallied 20 wins. It was just the third time in the program's history that the team has recorded a 20-win season. It is the first since tallying a RMU record 23 wins in the 1983-84 season. The Colonials also recorded 20 wins during the 1981-82 campaign. Of the Colonials' 20 wins, there were 14 losing streaks that were broken that ranged anywhere from 16 to one. Below is a look at the teams that RMU defeated and the loosing streaks that were broken. Teams in bold stand for a home and away regular season series sweep by RMU.

The Long Ball

Sal Buscaglia and his staff added depth at their guard spots in their first recruiting class that hit the court in 2004-05. The added depth brought a deadly long-range game for Robert Morris. The Colonials finished the 2004-05 season with 166 three-pointers, which set a new single season record at Robert Morris and the team also led the Northeast Conference in three-pointers made per game, averaging 5.53 per game. Robert Morris has not made more than 150 three-pointers since tallying 153 during the 2000-2001 season. In 1999-2000 the Colonials set the old mark of 161 made threes. The Colonials tallied five or more three-pointers in 18 of the Colonials 30 games. RMU shot .322 from behind the arc compared to 113 from their opponents who shot .307 from long range. Here is a look at the top-five 2004-05 NEC standings for three-pointers made per game:

Leaders of the Pack

The Northeast Conference features four schools with duos that combined to score at least 20.0 points per game in 2004-05. Topping the list was Robert Morris, which features senior forward Sugeiry Monsac and senior guard DeSheyna Perry. The duo, led by Monsac's 20.1 ppg average in 2004-05, combined to average 31.7 ppg last season. A look at the top four returning scoring duos in the NEC:

Robert Morris
Sugeiry Monsac 31.7
DeSheyna Perry 11.5

Saged Heart
Amanda Pape 14.7
Kerri Burke 11.2

Long Island
Polana Ober 11.7
Kelli Sawyer 10.9

Mount St. Mary's
Tiffany Green 11.9
Dita Krumberg 10.0

Active Force

In just one season, Sugeiry Monsac has become one of the leading players to watch within the Northeast Conference. Monsac earned RMU's first major postseason award in 2005 after being named the NEC Player of the Year. Entering the 2005-06 season, Monsac ranks among the top four in the conference among active leading scorers and rebounders after just one season, whereas everyone, except Monique Lee from Quinnipiac, on the list has been active for at least two seasons.
