Opening Remarks: Robert Morris continues its two-game swing in Ohio at Xavier on Friday. The game versus Xavier is the third of four-straight on the road for the Colonials. RMU got back on the winning track with a 65-45 non-conference victory at Cleveland State on Wednesday. Sugeiry Monsac and Natasha Summerville led four Colonials in double figures in the win with 14 points apiece. Monsac tallied her first double-double on the year as she grabbed 10 rebounds to go along with her 14 points. Jenna Burket and DeSheyna Perry finished with 12 and 11 points, respectively. Following the game, Robert Morris will have nine full days off until they travel to West Long Branch, N.J. to resume Northeast Conference play at Monmouth Jan. 9. The Colonials return home for three-straight games at the Sewall Center Jan. 11 when inter-state and NEC rival St. Francis (Pa.) comes to Moon Township.

Quick Stat of the Night: In 2004-05 Sugeiry Monsac became the first RMU player to earn Northeast Conference Player of the Year honors after averaging 20.1 points and 11.6 rebounds per outing. In 30 games, the 6-1 forward recorded 21 double-doubles, which was tops in the league. Monsac has battled back from an injury that sidelined her through the first six games of the season and made her way back into the starting lineup at Cleveland State on Wednesday. Monsac recorded her first double-double on the season after finishing with 14 points and 10 rebounds in just 27 minutes of action. The Colonials own an overall record of 21-10 when Monsac is in the starting lineup and the Colonials are 13-9 when Monsac records a double-double, which was tops in the league. Friday's Opponent and the All-Time Series: Xavier is in its 35th year of competition, while Robert Morris is celebrating its 30th year, but these two programs have met just once. Exactly nine years ago to the day, Xavier and Robert Morris met in Cincinnati. Xavier claimed as 92-75 victory on Dec. 30, 1996. Xavier is the second Atlantic 10 member school that the Colonials have faced in less than 10 days. RMU suffered a 63-47 setback at A10 member and cross-town rival Duquesne on Dec. 21. Robert Morris head coach Sal Buscaglia, a veteran head coach of 28 years, has never faced Xavier.

Sal Buscaglia

Third Season - Canisius ’76

2005 Brenda Reilly Coach of the Year

‘Coach Sal’ as he is respectfully called is entering his third season at the helm and has turned the Colonials into not only a Northeast Conference contender, but a nationally competitive program in his short time at Robert Morris.

With nine national tournament appearances and only two losing seasons, the Colonials, although finishing with a 3-24 overall record in his first season, finished 20-10 last season with his first recruiting class, tying for third in the nation in largest turnarounds in one season and marked just the third time that the program has tallied a 20-win season. Along the way, Buscaglia tallied his 500th career head coaching victory and currently boosts an overall coaching record of 510-225.

Buscaglia guided the Colonials to the conference championship game for the first time since 1991. Along the way, the Colonials posted wins over Mid-American teams Akron and Marshall, along with Atlantic 10 member and cross town rival Duquesne. In addition, Robert Morris beat St. Francis (Pa.), Mount St. Mary’s, and Monmouth. Prior to his arrival the team had 16, 15, and 13 game losing streaks, respectively, versus those teams.

Before Robert Morris, Buscaglia spent five seasons at Manhattan (1998-2003). In just his second season at Manhattan, Buscaglia led the Lady Jaspers to a 17-win season, marking the fifth most victories in school history, and was recognized as the 24th most improved team in NCAA Division I. In five seasons at Manhattan, Buscaglia compiled a record of 79-65, including a 20-24 record in one season and marked just the third time that the program has missed a NCAA tournament appearance in 2002-03.

Over his career, Buscaglia has won five conference titles at Manhattan College -  Head Coach, 1998-2003

Hilbert College - Head Coach, 1977-90

University at Buffalo - Head Coach, 1990-98

Hilbert Junior College - Head Coach, 1977-79

Charlie Buscaglia
First Assistant Coach - Recruiting Coordinator
Third Season - Manhattan ’03

Charlie Buscaglia enters his third season as an assistant women’s basketball coach at Robert Morris, but his seventh year working under head coach Sal Buscaglia. Buscaglia is involved in all aspects of the program with special emphasis on recruiting. In addition to recruiting he works primarily with the development of the perimeter players, practice planning, game strategy, and oversees the purchasing of uniforms and equipment.

Buscaglia came to Robert Morris from Manhattan College, the 2003 Metro Atlantic Athletics Conference Champions and NCAA tournament participant, where he was an assistant from 1998 until 2003. While at Manhattan, Buscaglia focused mainly on recruiting. Buscaglia believes that recruiting is the life line of the success of Robert Morris basketball. He continues to have strong ties throughout the entire country, along with premier junior college programs.

Aside from recruiting, Buscaglia has helped run summer basketball camps and clinics at the University at Buffalo from 1994 until 1998 and was a camp director at Manhattan during his tenure there.

Toyelle Wilson
Assistant Coach
Third Season - Manhattan ’03

Toyelle Wilson enters her third season as an assistant coach for the Lady Colonials. She is primarily responsible with the skill development of the guards, assisting the recruiting coordinator with campus visits, and coordinating the preseson and postseason conditioning regimen. Additional responsibilities include opponent scouting, film exchange, assisting the head coach with game preparation, game strategy, and practice planning, and coordinating the "Coach Sal’s Girls Basketball Camps."

Head coach Sal Buscaglia offered Wilson her first career coaching job after closing out a four year playing career under him at Manhattan College. As a freshman she started 18 of 29 games for the Lady Jaspers. She averaged 5.6 points and 2.4 rebounds per game during the 1999-2000 campaign.

In 2002-03, she helped Manhattan finish the season with a 20-10 overall record, including a 15-3 record in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference. The Jaspers won the MAAC tournament and earned a berth into the NCAA Division I Tournament. Wilson, a team captain, was named Defensive Player of the Year for Manhattan during his tenure there.

Derrick Harrison
Assistant Coach
Third Season - Potsdam ‘94

Derrick Harrison is in his third season as an assistant women’s basketball coach for the Colonials. On the court, Harrison assists head coach Sal Buscaglia with the development of the post players and his off the court responsibilities include team travel, budget management and scheduling for the Colonials.

Harrison came to the Colonials from Manhattan College, where he was an assistant coach for one season. Harrison’s responsibilities with the Jaspers included recruiting, tape exchange, travel, organizing summer basketball camps and working with the post players.

Before joining Manhattan, which won the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference championship and reached the NCAA tournament in 2002-03, Harrison was the head women’s basketball coach and sports information director at City College of New York from 1999 until 2002. When named coach at CCNY, he inherited a team that had a 10-40 record in the previous two seasons. In his three seasons at CCNY, Harrison owned an overall record of 36-42, including a 24-18 mark in the CUNY Athletic Conference.

Prior to his hiring at CCNY, Harrison was an assistant varsity coach and head junior varsity coach at Hunter College in New York City. In his two years at Hunter, the Hawks won back-to-back conference championships (1997-98, 1998-99) and reached the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1998-99.

Scouting the Musketeers: Xavier enters Friday’s match up with an overall record of 8-2. Wednesday’s game marks the third-straight home game for the Musketeers, who are currently on a two-game winning streak. Xavier was last in action on Dec. 21 when they hosted Florida State. Xavier topped the Seminoles, 75-68. Four Musketeers reached double figures in the win, led by Tara Booth with 22 points and Suntana Granderson with 21. Michele Miller and Booth led the way on the glass with eight rebounds. For the season, Booth leads the way with 19.1 points per game and shares team-honors with Miller with 17 steals. Granderson is second on the team averaging 16.2 points per outing. Miranda Green leads the way with 42 assists.

Xavier Head Coach: The Musketeers are under the guidance of fourth year head coach Kevin McGuff (St. Joseph’s of Ind. ’92). In four seasons, McGuff has acquired an overall record of 67-35. In 2004-05, McGuff led Xavier to a share of the Atlantic 10 West Division Title with a 13-3 league mark. XU also advanced to the WNIT, in which they were the only team to win two games on the road in the tournament. McGuff was one of just three first-year head coaches to lead a team to the 2003 NCAA Tournament. In addition, only seven teams advanced to the NCAA Tournament with a coach who was in their first year at the school.

RMU’s Last Game: Senior forward / center Sugeiry Monsac tallied a double-double finishing with 14 points and 10 rebounds to lead the Robert Morris to a 65-54 non-conference victory at Cleveland State on Wednesday. Despite being without leading scorer and rebounder Psyche Butler Robert Morris finished with four players in double-figures. Sharing scoring honors with Monsac was Natasha Summerville who also finished with 14 points, while Jenna Burkett and DeSheyna Perry tallied 12 and 11 points, respectively. Summerville scored 12 of her 14 points in the first half as she helped lead Robert Morris to a 35-28 lead at halftime. Cleveland State held a 7-2 advantage when Jenna Burkett and Summerville hit back-to-back three-pointers to give Robert Morris their first lead of the game, 8-7 with 15:50 to play in the first half. The Colonials pushed its lead to as many as seven points, but the Vikings battled back to take two one-point leads in the final 8:12 of the opening stanza. Monsac was there each time Cleveland State attempted to increase its lead to more than one point and she hit a jumper with 3:43 to play before halftime to give Robert Morris the lead for good. The Colonials increased its lead to 20 points, 61-41, with 7:56 to play in the game. RMU held off a late surge by the Vikings to post the 65-54 non-conference victory. Robert Morris forced Cleveland State to turn the ball over 27 times for the game, which resulted in 16 RMU steals. Summerville led the Colonial defense, finishing with six steals. Tess Cooley and Le’Shea Dawson finished second behind Monsac with five rebounds in the win. For the game, RMU shot 38.5 percent (25-for-65) from the field, while Cleveland State shot just 35.0 percent (21-for-60). CSU won the battle on the glass, out rebounding Robert Morris 46-40.

Leading Scorers: Monsac (14), Summerville (14), Burkett (12), Perry (11)

Leading Rebounders: Monsac (10), Cooley (8), Dawson (8)

Assists: Perry (6), Dawson (5), Summerville (4)
In 2004-05 head coach Sal Buscaglia rebuilt a team that had won a combined 10 games in the previous three seasons. Buscaglia and his staff brought in their first recruiting class that featured the likes of some of the top junior college players in the nation in order to help with a quick turnaround. And what a turnaround. The Colonials finished the season 20-10 and were one game away from making the program’s first appearance in the NCAA Tournament. Helping lead the Colonials to the quick turnaround was the ‘Triple Threat’ combination of Sugeiry Monsac, DeSheyna Perry, and Tess Cooley. These three players finished one, two, and three in scoring a season ago to help lead RMU to the third largest turnaround in the nation. This trio led RMU in scoring in 28 out of 30 contests and in rebounding in 27 out of 30 games.

Monsac became the first player in the 30-year history of the program to be selected as the Northeast Conference Player of the Year after leading the team with 20.1 points per game, 11.6 rebounds per game, 93 steals, and 88 assists. Perry was a second-team all-conference selection as a junior. She was the Colonials floor general and lived up to all expectations. She averaged 12.0 points and 3.8 boards, while dishing out 81 assists. Rounding out the ‘Triple Threat’ combination is Cooley. Cooley opened the season recording her first of five double-doubles on the year, which led her to being honored as the Choice Hotels NEC Player of the Week. Cooley led the team in blocks with 27 and in field goal percentage (.490). She was second on the boards with 6.5 rebounds per contest and rounded out three Colonials averaging double figures with 10.4 points per game. Entering 2005-06 the Colonials are now recognized as a Northeast Conference contender instead of just a member, as well as a nationally competitive program. To keep the Colonials on the upswing, Buscaglia will look to his ‘Triple Threat’ combination to continually help Robert Morris to exceed all expectations. Here is a look at ‘Triple Threat’:

2005-06 Numerical Roster

Three’s Company: Junior guard Jenna Burkett has been in ‘Three’s Company’ since putting on a Colonial uniform during 2003-04 season. Currently she has 113 made three-pointer's which ranks fifth in the RMU career record book. Burkett needs 21 from long range to move into fourth and 44 to take over the record book. Overall, she has sank three or more three-pointers in 22 games over her short career. Burkett has made three from behind the arc in 11 outings, four on four occasions, five twice, six in two games, and a RMU single-game record of nine once which was in her freshman campaign. For her career, Burkett has made at least one three-pointer in 38 out of the 66 games she has appeared in. She holds a streak of eight consecutive games that she nailed one from behind the arc.

Seeing Double: Junior forward Psyche Butler tallied back-to-back double-doubles for the Colonials against Pittsburgh and Wagner. Her first collegiate double-double came against Pittsburgh Dec. 6. Butler finished with a career-high 11 rebounds and 10 points. She returned the next game a recorded a career-high 15 rebounds to go along with 15 points in the Colonials 75-61 NEC win over Wagner. Butler has finished with double-digit rebounds in the last three-straight games. Her latest outing was 10 boards at Duquesne Dec. 21.

Cracking The Books: It takes alot to crack into any career record book, but for senior guard Le'Sheala Dawson, she is a quick learner. Dawson is a junior college transfer from Saddleback J.C. and is in the second season with the Colonials and already has her name scattered among some of the greatest three-point shooters at the university. Her 48 made three-pointers in 2004-05 ranks sixth in the single-season record book and her 165 attempts from long range a season ago stands fourth. For her career, Dawson needs just needs four more from long range to break into the top-10 career record book. Currently Dawson has nailed 61 from long range in 205 attempts. Her 205 attempts ranks 10th in career three-point attempts at RMU.

Shooting Woes: Robert Morris has experienced some ups and downs when it has came to their field goal percentage in 2005-06. The Colonials have out shot their opponents from the field, .520-.516, but have made just 194 shots compared to 210 by their opponents. RMU currently boosts a shooting percentage of .296 compared to .382 by their opponents. Robert Morris has shot under 25 percent in two of their last four contests. RMU shot just 26.4 percent (14-for-53) in a 66-36 loss to Pittsburgh (Dec. 6) and just 22.4 percent (15-for-67) in a 63-47 loss at Duquesne (Dec. 21). In three seasons that head coach Sal Buscaglia has been at the helm of the Colonials, Robert Morris, the Colonials have never shot below 27 percent in a game.

Where Are The Points Coming From: The six newcomers on the Colonial roster have accounted for 53 percent of RMU’s scoring. The newcomers have scored 292 out of 548 points for Robert Morris so far this season. Leading the way is Natasha Summerville with 106 followed by Psyche Butler with 88 points.

Over The Horizon: Robert Morris has posted a perfect 3-0 record versus the Horizon League this season. RMU topped Youngstown State, 68-60, in the season-opener and returned in game number two to defeat Loyola (Ill.), 66-57, in the opening round of the Best Western Roundball Classic at South Florida in Tampa, Fla. The Colonials closed out their Horizon League schedule with a 65-54 win at Cleveland State Dec. 28.

Big East...Northeast: The Colonials are part of the Northeast Conference, but through six games of the season, an outsider may think that they have moved from the Northeast to the Big East. RMU has faced three Big East Conference schools this season. Unfortunately RMU has not fared as well in the Big East this season as it has in the past in the NEC. RMU posted a 0-3 record versus Big East foes this season.

There Is No Place Like Home: Of the Colonials 20 save a season ago, 12 came within the confines of the Charles L. Sewall Center. Since the opening of the Sewall Center during the 1985-86 season, the women's basketball team has compiled a record of 117-135 for a .464 winning percentage. The 12 wins a season ago were the most-ever and the .800 winning percentage is first on the list also. The Colonials will play 12 home contests this season which includes nine league games and three non-conference tilts. Currently RMU owns a 3-1 record at home this season.

Newest Veterans: Robert Morris has added depth and experience to its 2005-06 roster. Three junior college transfers join the Colonial contingent this season which includes Natasha Summerville from Frank Phillips Community College, Princess Asia Alston from Butler Community College, and Psyche Butler from New Mexico Junior College. Summerville is an instant scorer that averaged 16.2 points at Frank Phillips and helped lead them to a No. 6 ranking in points per game (80.4) in the National Junior College Athletic Association in 2005. Alston will add depth to the Colonials perimeter play after tallying 14.2 points, 5.3 rebounds, 3.2 assists, and 2.71 steals per game at Butler. Butler is a junior academically, but will have three years of v with the Colonials after playing just one season at New Mexico J.C. Butler is an athletic guard that can score from the inside or the outside. She joins RMU after averaging 17.4 points and 9.0 boards per game in junior college.

Fresh Talent: The class of 2009 brings a combination of quickness and height to RMU this season. Crystal Ahmed is a lightning quickpoint guard that was rated as the No. 1 guard by the New York City’s School Sports Magazine. Another freshman guard on the Colonial roster is Kendra Williams. Williams drives to the basket strong and was a two-time All-Bronx selection. The tallest player on the 2005-06 roster is 6-4 freshman center Jessica Ayilola. She has played basketball for just two seasons prior to coming to Robert Morris but has learned the game quickly. She averaged 14.0 points and 14.0 rebounds in her senior campaign at Boys and Girls School in Brooklyn, N.Y.

Scoring Machine: The Colonials returned 94 percent of its scoring from a season-ago, including its top-six scorers. The seven returnees accounted for 1,769 points out of the 1,882 that was scored. Leading the way is Sugiery Monsac with a single season record of 312 points, followed by DeSheyna Perry (347), Tess Cooley (312), Le'Sheala Dawson (236) Amie Harris (133), Jenna Burkett (113). and Arlene Mull (26).

Postseason Honors: Junior forward / center Sugiery Monsac was selected as the 2004-05 NEC Player of the Year, while second-year head coach Sal Buscaglia was tabbed the Brenda Reilly Coach of the Year and DeSheyna Perry garnered second-team accolades. This is the first time in the programs history anyone has earned a major award.

A Lot Can Happen In A Year: Head coach Sal Buscaglia and his staff turned Robert Morris into a contender in the Northeast Conference and in the NCAA. The Colonials finished 20-10 overall in 2004-05, which was a 16 game turnaround from a season ago. The NCAA record for the best turn around in a year is 17 games which was done by Valparaiso in 2002. The Colonials tied third place UNC Ashville who finished with a 16 game turnaround in 2004. Santa Clara is second at 16.5 games in 1991.

RMU Coaching Records
Director of Intercollegiate Athletics Craig Coleman, M.D., announced Nov. 15, 2005 that Robert Morris University has signed Sal Buscaglia to a contract extension through May of 2010. Buscaglia is the fifth coach in the 30-year history of the program. He now has five years remaining on his contract.

The Long Ball
Sal Buscaglia and his staff added depth at their guard spots in their first recruiting class that hit the court in 2004-05. The added depth brought a deadly long-range game for Robert Morris. The Colonials finished the 2004-05 season with 166 three-pointers, which set a new single season record at Robert Morris and the team also led the Northeast Conference in three-pointers made per game, averaging 5.53 per game. Robert Morris has not made more than 150 three-pointers since tallying 153 during the 2000-2001 season. In 1999-2000 the Colonials set the old mark of 161 made threes. The Colonials tallied five or more three-pointers in 18 of the Colonials 30 games. RMU shot .322 from behind the arc compared to 113 from their opponents who shot .307 from long range. Here is a look at the top-five 2004-05 NEC standings for three-pointers made per game:

Through nine games in 2005-06, the Colonials are once again relying heavily on its outside shot. RMU is currently shooting .295 percent (59-for-199) from behind the arc. The Colonials have made six or more threes in a game in all but two contests on the year. Robert Morris sank a season-high 12 from long range in its 79-69 win over Norfolk State Dec. 4. Individually, Jenna Burkett leads the way with 19 three-pointers and Le’Shea Dawson has sank 13 and Natasha Summerville has 12. For the second year in a row, the Colonials currently are holding the top spot in the Northeast Conference for three-pointers made per game. Leaders of the Pack

The Northeast Conference features four schools with duos that combined to score at least 20.0 points per game in 2004-05. Topping the list was Robert Morris, which features senior forward Sugarie Monsac and senior guard DeSheyna Perry. The duo, led by Monsac’s 20.1 ppg average in 2004-05, combined to average 31.7 ppg last season. A look at the top four returning scoring duos in the NEC:

Robert Morris
Sugarie Monsac 20.2
DeSheyna Perry 11.5

Sacrded Heart
Amanda Pape 14.7
Keri Burke 11.2

Long Island
Polana Oberc 11.7
Kelli Sawyer 10.9

Mount St. Mary’s
Tiffany Green 11.9
Dita Krumbelga 10.0

Active Force

In just one season, Sugarie Monsac has become one of the leading players to watch within the Northeast Conference. Monsac earned RMU’s first major postseason award in 2005 after being named the NEC Player of the Year. Entering the 2005-06 season, Monsac ranks among the top in the conference among active leading scorers and rebounders after just one season, whereas everyone, except Monique Lee from Quinnipiac, on the list has been active for at least two seasons.
