

We here at the RMU Bookstore want to take a moment to help you navigate buying books, spirit wear, and gifts, and to describe some updated safety measures for the upcoming school year.

The RMU Bookstore is committed to ensuring your safety. We are currently working to fulfill any web orders that come through. The store has been set up with plastic guards as well as floor markers to show incoming and outgoing traffic. The bookstore's capacity will be 15 shoppers in the store at any given time.

We HIGHLY encourage you to take advantage of our online ordering system at rmu.edu/bookstore to place your book orders for the upcoming Fall term. By placing your book orders online, you will reduce the wait time and can choose between having your order mailed to you or picking it up in the store.

TEXTBOOKS

The textbook section located in the bookstore will be closed to the public. Books will be retrieved by a Barnes & Noble employee at a desk service station towards the back of the store. Students will need to bring their class schedules, which they can locate on the Sentry website. Please ensure that your class schedule looks like the image below.

You can order your books by going to rmu.edu/bookstore and following the attached steps. Or you can click on the Order your textbooks link from your Sentry account as shown below.
